ROTARACT CLUB OF CALCUTTA YUVIS'S

JULY SUMMARY REPORT

The Club took to their first RGM on 3rd July, itself and started to plan the upcoming year.

They went on to take part and Host the project for providing Reliefs to the Yaas effected areas, organised by Rotaract District Organisation 3291.

The Club had their joint meeting with the Rotary President, Rtn. Naveen Agarwal and RCCs, Rtn. Vidhu Bhushan Verma and Rtn. Sarad Khatore wherein they finalised the formulation of the Board and and upcoming joint project with the Rotary.

On 28th July, 2021, the Club had their first project of the year, jointly with the Parent Rotary wherein they organised a Medical Camp Setup at Chikitsa Medica Center, Hindmotor, providing a collective number of tests at a very nominal amount of Rs. 100, which would otherwise would have cost Rs. 1500+.

The project was well executed and a odd number of 50 beneficiaries were helped. The club took to ground work to reach door to door and let people know of the camp and register themselves.

The Club also collaborated and took part in two events organised by Rotaract Club of Calcutta Renaissance and Rotaract Club of Calcutta Old City, Beyond Textbooks and BGMI, respectively.

That was for the month of July, they plan to work better and fruitfully in the coming months.
