TODAY'S CHIEF GUEST

Dr. Ranjini Datta

Head of Department, Department of Clinical Dietetics and Community Nutrition, KPC Medical College and Hospital, Program In-charge, Masters in Dietetics and Food Service Management, IGNOU, Scientific Consultant, Foundation for Community Support and Development, Kolkata; Scientific Advisor, WHO & Vignyan Prasar, Kolkata

After completing schooling at Calcutta Girls High School, I took up Clinical Dietetics as my professional studies and went to graduate in it from Calcutta University and later post graduated from All India Institute of Hygiene and Public Health and doctoral Studies in clinical dietetics from WBUHS and CMJ University, with KPC Medical college and SSKM being my place of research.

SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

So in a way, these two institutes of Kolkata are my alma mater too. My area of interest is critical care nutrition and I have been working to get clinical nutrition from its back seat in the medical scenario especially in eastern India to become a front runner in the triage of patient care. I have been an active practitioner of clinical nutrition for over one and a half-decade now. Alongside I also want to dispense knowledge about this very unique area of medical science to the newer generations. Hence took up the role of a teacher of the trade. Have had over 2000 students who have completed their masters in the subject under my supervision. To date have guided over 500 dissertations and a dozen of thesis. I have been a columnist for many Bengali and English daily and periodicals where I have written the nutrition and health column. I had the honor of being the lifestyle expert for Femina Miss India for a couple of years and won the title of Mrs. India Kolkata in 2018.

Being a trained dancer and elocutionist, I rendezvous with the stage started at a very tender age. I felt elocution must have been my forte when I won the prestigious Nehru Children museum national children meet best elocutionist award at the age of eight. Being a regular and active member of "VOICES" and "SPIC MACAY," those festing days from school and then college never failed to inspire me, more so as there were seldom events which I did not win.,mostly events like debate, quizzes, dumb charades, and choreography.

Later on in life, took to photography and got recognized by The Telegraph Kolkata as being the first mobile street photography unit. I also have a small art-house production unit called "Ghotigorom Productions". My unit has been working mainly to keep the slowly dwindling Bengali or rather Kolkata heritage alive in the hearts of today's generation. Ghotigorom Productions, other than participating in many international concerts like Beacon of Hope, American International Physician meet, Sylhati International meet also had the honor of having two docu features produced by us shown in two Kolkata International Film Festivals.

REPORT ON BLOOD DONATION CAMP

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by RCC- The Refuge, supported by Rotary Club of Calcutta, on 20 July. 68 donors came forward to donate Blood out of which 4 were visually impaired. The enthusiasm amongst donors was overwhelming.

An Air-Conditioned Bus was arranged wherein blood was taken and stored in an appropriate manner. Food packets were also distributed to the donors. With the ongoing pandemic crisis, a Blood Donation Camp involving members in large numbers, is extremely rare. We are proud to be a part of the RCC.

President Rtn Sujata Pyne, Rtn Arindam Roychoudhary, Rtn Kanak Dutta and Rtn Partha Pratim Mukherjee were also present at the Camp.

A MESSAGE AND AN APPEAL FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear members,

It is customary, over decades, to hold an art exhibition and a cultural program by the students of the NCLCL on our Independence Day, 15 August. This year these events will not be possible because of the pandemic restrictions. Instead, we shall mark the Day by launching a mega project - AKRITI through which 1000 beneficiaries will be provided with Prosthetic limbs throughout the year.

The Dist. Governor has given a clarion call to mark Independence Day as a Rotary Day of Empowering Women. Hence we shall launch AKRITI exclusively with women beneficiaries. What could be a better way of empowering them than providing them with prosthetic limbs that would bring back their self confidence, dignity and independence on Independence Day?

I earnestly request all members to support @ 2500/- per limb towards this noble cause of changing lives of these beneficiaries and their family members bringing a ray of hope and joy in our endeavour to SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES “

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

JORDAN

The Rotary Club of Amman Jordan River is making beautiful music. Club member Rana Rizkallah, maestro of the Youth Orchestra at the National Music Conservancy, assembled talented musicians for a Rotary-sponsored orchestra. For musicians who do not read music but can play by ear, the orchestra offers special classes in music reading, which Rizkallah notes might open up career opportunities. For the time being, all the members are Rotaractors, but Rizkallah hopes to open the orchestra to non-members in the future. Socially distanced rehearsals began in early 2021. With its repertoire of both Western and Arabic pieces, “the goals of the orchestra include offering in-house entertainment for all events and activities we organize, to save the cost of getting outside entertainment,” says Rizkallah.

UGANDA : ROTARY PEACE FELLOWS

In the last week of February, in Kampala, Uganda, 15 Rotary Peace Fellows gathered at Makerere University for the inaugural session of Rotary International's new peace center. Among them, the peace center's first cohort represented 11 countries and spoke, in addition to English, a dozen African languages, including Luganda, Swahili, and Zulu. “Coming from diverse backgrounds, and yet with a shared desire for peace in Africa, they are the epitome of unity in diversity,” said Anne Nkutu, a member of the Rotary Club of Kampala Naalya and the host area coordinator for the Makerere University peace center.

With an average age of 40 when they were admitted to the program, the fellows are not novice peacemakers. These are established professionals with a minimum of five years of experience in peace and development. They arrived at Makerere University — home to an established program in peace and conflict studies — already working on an initiative, or with an idea for one, that promotes peace or social change within their workplace or community. “The fellows come off as, and indeed are, change agents” said Helen Nambalirwa Nkabala, the director of the peace center..”

ROTARY AND COVID-19

Rotary is taking action in response to the pandemic as our clubs support COVID-19 vaccination and continued prevention efforts around the world.

Tapping into decades of experience in bringing polio to the brink of eradication, Rotary members worldwide are helping health authorities communicate lifesaving information about COVID-19 and vaccination, combatting misinformation, supporting fair and equal access to vaccines, and curbing the spread of the virus by donating protective gear and other supplies to clinics and hospitals that are under strain.

- Setting up of libraries in the government schools as we believe the culture of reading should be inculcated in the young minds. Our aim is to provide good quality didactic books to the children.
- Setting up a LITERACY CENTRE which would be a paramount focus because the status of education in times of pandemic has been dreadful. Children without the access of technology have been deprived of education. The provision of required electronic gadgets is of great importance. We wish to set up a centre where we would be providing both online and offline tuition classes along with recreational classes such as dance, music, etc., to the underprivileged children who cannot afford private tuitions and create a conducive atmosphere for seeking knowledge.
