

UTSAV 2023 Event by Saanthwana

Utsav festival is organized by Saanthwana every year on first Sunday. It is a festival for Children from Orphanage homes. Multiple fun and cultural activities are carried out in the event which include talent recognition, games and cultural activities. It is a day long event right from morning to evening, also provides breakfast, lunch and evening snacks. About 250 children and 250 volunteers/guests attend the event.

About SAANTHWANA

Saanthwana is a registered in 2007 as non-profit organization. Its main objective is to give emotional support to orphanage children and old age homes. It is started by a group of college going students and works mainly on well being of children in the areas of Education, Health and Grooming.

UTSAV 2023

Utsav 2023 was conducted on 8th Jan 2023 at Mudiraj Bhavan, Boiguda, Secunderabad. About 250 children from Rainbow Aman Vedika Home, Sitaphalmandi have participated. Various activities like Singing, Dancing, artwork and other talent games were the key attraction. Children participated and performed with great enthusiasm. Winners were identified for every activity and were awarded with prizes. Founders of the Organization Rtn Sampath Botla, Vinod Yadav, advisor Niharika and other members have conducted and supervised the event. Breakfast, lunch and evening snacks were served to one and all.

Rtn Amarnath, Rtn Chandrasekhar and Rtn Sudhir have attended the event and handed over the prizes to winners of various games. Rtn Sampath Botla is RChEm director, Community Services

