OUR SPEAKER ON ENVIRONMENT - Rtn S.K. Gupta

S K Gupta is known as a pioneer of air quality monitoring and instrumentation in India and for his contributions to developing India's own instruments for monitoring air pollution and air quality in the early 80's.

He had also initiated unique "Hands-on Training" programmes in India to develop competent manpower.

He has encouraged and supported Indian research and academic institutions to develop appropriate technologies to monitor and control pollution. Recently, the "Envirotech G. D. Agrawal" award was instituted by him at IIT Kanpur for the most innovative research in the field of environmental engineering.

He has instilled entrepreneurship in many and provided employment to hundreds in this field.

He has brought together over 600 environmental professionals under the umbrella of the Indian Association for Air Pollution Control (Delhi Chapter) and was its founding secretary for 20 years. He is also the founder and mission advisor of Global Council of Environment and Health Inc., which works to ensure that every global citizen has clean air and a healthy climate in order to save their lives.

His initiatives and efforts have helped the country to develop indigenous capabilities for monitoring our air environment. The country now has its own instruments and several hundred competent and trained personnel.

Due to his contributions in the field of air quality, he has been nominated to the commission on air quality management in NCR and adjoining areas by the Govt of India. He has also been nominated to the committee set up by BIS on the standardisation of environmental services.

He is a Civil Engineer from IIT Kanpur, a Rotarian since 1985 and has a strong belief in traditional wisdom and values in life. He is presently the Chairman of Envirotech Instruments Pvt. Ltd. New Delhi, the largest producer of indigenous instruments for monitoring air pollution and air quality in India and currently the leader in the Indian market.

STORY CORNER

THE PROUD ROSE

Once upon a time, in a desert far away, there was a rose who was so proud of her beautiful looks. Her only complaint was growing next to an ugly cactus.

Every day, the beautiful rose would insult and mock the cactus on his looks, all while the cactus remained quiet. All the other plants nearby tried to make the rose see sense, but she was too swayed by her own looks.

One scorching summer, the desert became dry, and there was no water left for the plants. The rose quickly began to wilt. Her beautiful petals dried up, losing their lush color.

Looking to the cactus, she saw a sparrow dip his beak into the cactus to drink some water. Though ashamed, the rose asked the cactus if she could have some water. The kind cactus readily agreed, helping them both through the tough summer, as friends.

Moral Of the Story:

Never judge anyone by their appearance.

The 4-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it Build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
