Rotary Picnic - Saputara

Rotary picnics are full of fun, frolic and fellowship.

After quite some time a club picnic to Saputara was planned. Total participants were 22 members and partners. Kids of younger members also joined.

The trip started by assembling at Khatu Shyam temple, VIP road. The next stop was at Jalaram khaman at Rankuva. A scrumptious breakfast was relished by one and all.

Thereafter the group headed towards Gira falls which was in its full flow.

On reaching Saputara checked in at Hotel Shilpi followed by lunch.

After a short siesta the group headed towards the lake. Although it was drizzling we decide to take a boat ride with our umbrellas. It was real fun and a unique experience indeed.

Dinner was planned at Anando restaurant in Maharashtra. Played lots of games and enjoyed singing and Antakshari. Some fellow members enjoyed having booze.

Next day became a bit scary as our visit to the table top was difficult as our cars could not climb the steep slope.

Lunch was taken at the stalls which served Hot yummy Maggie, poha, omelette etc. and of course how can we forget the bhuttas managed by Kundanbhai Shah.

Return trip halt was planned at Farm house of Kamalbhai Gandhi. Some members enjoyed playing cards others enjoyed playing games managed by First Lady Neetaben Gandhi.

Kundanbhai Shah served mock tails.

The trip ended with dinner at Hotel Harekrishna.

A trip which will stay in our memories for quite some time.
