PRESIDENT'S DIARY

My Visit to Sevathirth on 8th May 2022, Tarsali Vadodara

Sevatirth, as the name says, is a place to give help to and serve people in need. The motto of Sevathirth is "Who has none, Sevathirth is his or hers". The objective of Sevathirth is to help disabled people stand on their feet and earn their livelihood with dignity. It imparts life skills like tailoring, needle work, embroidery, computer courses to them.

Apart from helping the disabled, it also houses an orphanage, a residency for the blind and for the mentally retarded (women and men) on campus. These orphans are given education so that they can live a good life in society. Training is given to divyangs which will help them to fetch jobs or to do work as self employed.

'Sevatirth' follows the syllabus of Industrial Training Institute ITI which is recognised by the Government of Gujarat. Gujarat Council of Vocational Training (GCVT) Courses are followed in Hand Embroidery, Cutting and Tailoring & Computer Operator and Programming Assistant (COPA).

Sevatirth - there is a great need for such institutions in the society.

EDITORS DESK

Dear Rotarians,

The world seems to have been bitten by the "Travel Bug" and new words like Revenge Tourism (Revenge has a negative vibe which actually doesn't sound very appealing to the ears) have been coined ... but its not far from reality. So, the passion for travel has been taken over by an intensely strong urge to travel ...wherever ... just away from the confines of Home, understandably so ...

Once your soul contracts the bug, the trip will never end. A travel writer Pico said, "travel is like love, in the end, mostly because it's a heightened state of awareness, in which we are mindful, receptive, undimmed by familiarity and ready to be transformed. That is why the best trips, like best love affairs, never really end." You're always dreaming up your next adventure ... your next escape.

Experiences from various places, and special connections to people whom we have never met before leave imprints on our hearts and minds forever. Sightseeing, sitting at a café watching people all afternoon, laying on a secluded white sand beach and listening to the waves until the sun sets or reading a book or resting in a hammock are the small pleasures of just being; soaking in the surroundings and embracing the art of doing nothing soothes the nerves and calms the mind.

Travel is the greatest teacher and the world is a classroom.

So, my dear friends, pack your bags and let the travel bug take you ... wherever...
