- Speaker Mr. Subhash Dutta very lucidly discussed on the topic – Online vs Offline.

He explained with real examples that the rural students are unable to follow their regular classes online not only due to irregular net connection but also many of them could not afford that. He opined that the character of the young students develop in the early years of schooling and online teaching may not help them in doing so as they are not getting in touch with their friends and teachers to learn the ways of life. Even the teachers are not equipped properly with the technology of online teaching. COVID situation has forced people to go online in every spheres of life to avoid contact but he suspected that there was some conspiracy of businessmen in forcing people post-COVID for online activities.

He described his simple way of life and expressed that it adds to satisfaction, health and well being. He told stories from his own life and which helped all to understand his ideology. Finally he was of opinion that the developed countries are already fit for this online teaching but India is still not prepared for online teaching in this socio-economic condition so till date offline is the preferred mode.

Rotarians present enjoyed and participated in his deliberation. Some of them exchanged view with him. Finally, PP Rtn. Gopinath Ghosh offered a befitting vote of thanks and handed over a token gift to the speaker.
