SERVICE TO MANKIND

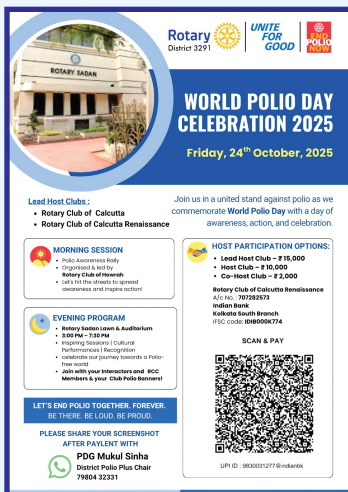

Service to mankind is often regarded as the highest form of virtue. It reflects the idea that helping others is not just a responsibility but a noble act that enriches both the giver and the receiver. When we serve others—whether through kindness, empathy, or positive action—we contribute to building a compassionate and harmonious society.

Acts of service need not be extraordinary. A simple smile, a comforting word, or lending a helping hand can make a significant difference in someone’s life. True service is performed selflessly, without expecting rewards or recognition. It is rooted in the belief that all humans are interconnected, and by uplifting someone else, we uplift humanity as a whole.

In a world often divided by differences, service bridges gaps and fosters unity. In this spirit, Rotary Club of Calcutta Mayfair plays its part by “Uniting for Good” to serve the society and bring happiness, inspiring others to join in creating a better tomorrow.

Ultimately, service to mankind is service to God, for it reflects the deepest values of love, generosity, and humanity.

2nd October 2025 Sindoore Khela

Venue: Bondel Road Pandal

Sindoore Khela is a cherished ritual of Bijoya Dasha-mi, where married women smear vermilion (sindoor) on Maa Durga and on each other as a symbol of strength, prosperity, and sisterhood.

This vibrant tradition celebrates the power of feminine energy, invoking blessings for long life, abundance, and protection for their families, while also honoring the eternal bond of womanhood.

It is a celebration of Shakti, joy, and togetherness before bidding farewell to Maa Durga.

Today we honor Maa Durga's blessings and the eternal bond of womanhood.

We enjoyed Dhunuchi dance, Maa Durga's Bidai. These activities were celebrated with high spirits and rhythm. The members attended this event and made it very special.

Organic Farming Initiative by Hansuli Krishi Pathshala, Birbhum

Hansuli Krishi Pathshala, Birbhum has taken a significant step towards sustainable agriculture by promoting organic farming practices using cow dung and cow urine. This eco-friendly initiative encourages farmers to return to natural methods of cultivation, reducing dependency on chemical fertilizers and pesticides. In this process, the soil retains its fertility, the environment remains unharmed, and the produce becomes healthier and chemical-free. The initiative not only protects nature and soil health but also empowers farmers with cost-effective and sustainable farming solutions. Through this effort of agricultural practices a healthier future is being secured for both people and the planet.

The Doctor's Fees

A renowned doctor treated a laborer who had no money. When asked about his fees, the doctor replied, "You cannot pay me, but promise me this—help the first person you see in distress."

Years later, that laborer saved a drowning child. That child grew up to be a scientist who discovered a cure that saved millions.

Moral: Service is like a seed—it grows beyond imagination.
