Rtn. Nagaraj Tantry gave titbits on the worth of Anantha Chaturdashi. Rtn. Shashikala Rajavarma introduced the guest. Sri Raghavendra Achar is a qualified Teacher, Purohith and Scholar who learned and practiced Veda for several years in various institutions like Sanskrit University, Bangalore & Art of Living. He is currently conducting Veda Classes in schools of Puttige Mutt in Udipi and Padigaru and narrates Veda in Krishna Mutt. Sri Raghavendra Achar spoke on the significance of 4 Vedas and gave a brief account of the contents. He said that discipline, focus and dedication is required to learn and practice Veda. He also explained the Traditional Vedic Education being conducted in Gurukula system – Read, Write, Recall & Repeat are the steps followed for the learning. He also briefed on idol worship and the ideology behind it. Overall, the session was informative and interesting.

After the session Sri Raghavendra Achar was felicitated. PDG Rtn. Jayagowri handed over the memento to the Guest. Honouring a teacher / Veda Guru marked significance to the “Basic Education & Literacy Month”, which is the theme of the month September.

Three Rotracters of MIT, Manipal studying Biotechnology gave a brief introduction about their project – Synthetic Biology to combat pest infected disease in coffee plantation.

The program was concluded with the announcement and vote of thanks by Secretary Rtn. Farida Uppin, National Anthem and group photo.
