Hony Secretary Rtn. Khyati Munjal introduced the guest speaker, Ms. Puja from the Isha Foundation.

Ms. Puja addressed critical issues such as soil health, climate change, and personal well-being through yoga. She spoke about Sadhguru's vision, who is a spiritual leader and environmental advocate that promotes sustainable living and ecological balance. She also discussed how healthy soil is vital for life, supporting biodiversity and combating climate change. The Isha Foundation works to rejuvenate soils through sustainable agriculture and awareness campaigns. Additionally, she mentioned how the foundation tackles climate change by promoting sustainable practices and raising global awareness about environmental stewardship.

Ms. Puja explained the importance of yoga for well-being, emphasizing how it enhances physical and mental health. The Isha Foundation teaches practices that promote holistic well-being, including asanas, meditation, and mindfulness. She also highlighted the benefits of breathing exercises such as Pranayama, which reduce stress, improve focus, increase lung capacity, and boost energy levels. Incorporating these exercises daily can significantly improve quality of life.

The Isha Foundation's approach reflects Sadhguru's vision of a sustainable, conscious world, inspiring individuals to make positive changes for themselves and the planet.

PP Rtn. Manoj Tiwari proposed a hearty vote of thanks & felicitated the guest speaker by offering a small planted pot, as our club's small initiative towards go green initiative.

President thanked the fellowship committee led by PP Rotarian R.S. Chadha, for organising a wonderful fellowship.

Collection in the sunshine was 1060 degrees.

With greetings to Rotary International, the meeting was adjourned.
