THE ROTARY FOUNDATION IN ACTION: BUILDING SUSTAINABLE IMPACT THROUGH SERVICE AND UNITY

November, dedicated to The Rotary Foundation, offered a meaningful opportunity to reflect on Rotary's sustained efforts to create lasting impact through empowerment and sustainable development. The Foundation's work in community advancement focuses on expanding opportunities, strengthening livelihoods, and building self-sufficiency through education, entrepreneurship, and skill development. Across the district, these initiatives showcased Rotary's integrated approach—where immediate support is paired with long-term capacity building to ensure enduring progress.

The month further reflected Rotary's strength in unity and service. A series of District Governor Official Club Visits were successfully completed, fostering closer interaction, clearer communication, and stronger collaboration among clubs. A key highlight was the successful organization of The Rotary Foundation Seminar, Samarpan, which recognized outstanding service and celebrated the far-reaching influence of Foundation-supported programs at both the local and global levels.

On behalf of District 3240, I extend my sincere appreciation to every Rotarian for your dedication, generosity, and unwavering commitment. Together, we continue to drive meaningful change—strengthening communities and moving steadily toward a more inclusive, equitable, and hopeful future.

Long Live Rotary

Long Live Rotary International District 3240

Dr Kameswar Elangbam, DG # 3240 RY 2025-26

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This November, as we celebrate The Rotary Foundation, I invite you to consider not only what we give but why we give. The Foundation transcends its role as a funding mechanism for projects—it embodies our commitment that service, grounded in trust and friendship, creates lasting change.

Our Action Plan calls us to increase our impact, and the Foundation serves as the vehicle for realizing this vision. Since 1988, Rotary and our partners have immunized nearly 3 billion children against polio. We have committed more than $2.6 billion to this cause, with $146 million directed toward final eradication efforts last year alone. While these figures are significant, the true impact lies not in statistics but in the lives of children who will never fear polio, in hope restored to families, and in peace established within communities once devastated by disease.

Polio represents only one chapter of our story. Each year, Rotary Peace Centers train new generations of leaders who transform conflict into dialogue and division into understanding. In 2023-24, nearly 100 new fellows began their studies, continuing a legacy of more than 1,800 peacebuilders from over 140 countries. Our investment in these individuals plants seeds of peace that will yield results for decades.

The Foundation impacts lives through district and global grants, supporting projects of all scales. Clean water wells for rural communities, scholarships for young professionals, and medical care following disasters represent not temporary interventions but pathways toward dignity, resilience, and opportunity. This is how Rotary service achieves lasting impact. When natural disasters occur, our Foundation enables rapid response through disaster relief grants.

Our Foundation operates on collective strength rather than individual effort. Each contribution, regardless of size, combines with others to create a unified expression of faith in humanity and our shared future.

The final stage of any significant endeavor presents the greatest challenge. We observe this in our remaining steps toward polio eradication, in our peace initiatives, and in every project addressing human suffering. Yet each contribution affirms our commitment to continue this work despite obstacles.

This November, let us give with gratitude, joy, and hope. Through our Foundation, we Unite for Good, leaving behind not merely projects but a legacy of peace, trust, and Service Above Self.

ROTARY'S FOCUS ON MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLBEING

Mental health is a vital part of overall wellbeing. Many people experience conditions such as anxiety, depression, or cognitive changes later in life. Promoting awareness, reducing stigma, and encouraging access to trusted support are essential steps toward healthier communities.

Community groups can highlight initiatives that make a difference, while signposting to credible information and established services. From children and young people to older adults, emphasis is placed on prevention, early help, stress management, and resilience building.

Later-life wellbeing includes supporting those living with dementia or caring for loved ones. Awareness of serious mental illness, such as psychosis and bipolar disorder, helps challenge stigma and encourages understanding. Walking, gardening, sport, and the arts can nurture wellbeing, while fostering inclusive routines and encouraging check-ins builds caring communities.

Mental health is shaped by wider life conditions. By linking with initiatives on youth, environment, disaster response, and community resilience, organizations can multiply their impact and align local needs with practical action.

In times of adversity, hope is vital. Turning hope into small, practical acts of kindness and connection creates a more compassionate society. Together, communities can foster better mental health and wellbeing for individuals, families, and future generations.

WHAT WE'LL FOCUS ON

As a team, we'll be dedicated to the following areas:

SHARING POSITIVE PRACTICE

we will spotlight Rotary projects and partnerships making a difference, and signpost to credible information and support (e.g. NHS services and established charities)

A LIFESPAN LENS

From children and young people to older adults we will emphasise prevention, early help, stress management and resilience building – always pointing to where people can learn more or seek help if needed

DEMENTIA AND LATER-LIFE MENTAL HEALTH

Many are living with cognitive change or supporting loved ones who are. We'll share compassionate, practical ideas for Rotary members and groups.

SERIOUS MENTAL ILLNESS

Building on past activity, we'll raise awareness of experiences such as psychosis and bipolar disorder challenge stigma and signpost to specialist support.

NATURE, CREATIVITY AND MOVEMENT

Walking, gardening, sport (playing or supporting), and the arts can all nurture wellbeing. We'll gather simple, club friendly ideas that encourage connection and activity.

FAMILY AND CARERS

We'll highlight resources that recognise and support carers' roles for their loved ones, including the importance of balancing care for others with self-care.

TURNING COMMITMENT INTO OUTCOMES THE ROTARY FOUNDATION'S MODEL FOR SUSTAINABLE SERVICE

Intro

The Rotary Foundation enables clubs to move beyond intent and translate commitment into sustainable, measurable service. Through a structured funding framework, rigorous stewardship standards, and values-driven project design, the Foundation supports initiatives that create lasting and meaningful impact within communities. This report outlines how these elements work together to strengthen service outcomes and ensure long-term development,

Strengthening Service Through The Rotary Foundation

From Vision to Measurable Community Impact

The Rotary Foundation and Rotary-led service projects remain at the heart of Rotary's mission. Together, they enable clubs to translate intent into action—supporting communities locally while contributing to sustainable development initiatives worldwide. Contributions made to the Foundation do not end at donation; they cycle back to empower clubs to design and implement meaningful, high-impact projects. This model of shared responsibility and reinvestment ensures that service remains strategic, accountable, and enduring.

Rotary's Core Values: The Framework Behind Every Project

All Foundation-supported initiatives and service activities are guided by Rotary's core values, which define both purpose and practice:

- Service – Creating tangible improvements in lives and communities
- Fellowship – Building strong, collaborative relationships
- Diversity – Promoting inclusion, equity, and representation
- Integrity – Upholding ethical and transparent conduct
- Leadership – Driving initiatives that deliver scalable impact

These values are not symbolic; they directly influence project design, partnerships, and accountability.

Understanding The Rotary Foundation's Role

The Rotary Foundation functions as the engine that powers Rotary's global and local initiatives. Financial contributions made by clubs are strategically allocated to projects aligned with Rotary's focus areas. Over time, these funds return to clubs in the form of grants, enabling them to execute impactful service projects with global backing and structured oversight. This cyclical funding model reinforces sustainability and shared ownership.

Service Projects and Grant Pathways

Rotary clubs engage in service projects through multiple grant mechanisms, depending on scale and scope: Types of Grants

- Global Grants – Designed for large-scale, international projects
- District Grants – Intended for smaller, community-focused initiatives
- Club-to-Club Projects – Collaborative efforts between Rotary clubs

Focus Areas for Global Grant Projects

Global Grant initiatives must align with Rotary's defined areas of focus:

- Peacebuilding and conflict prevention
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water, sanitation, and hygiene
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Community economic development
- Environment

These focus areas ensure that projects address critical global challenges with long-term relevance.

What Makes a Grant Project Successful

Successful Rotary Foundation-supported projects share common characteristics:

- Direct response to identified community needs
- Clearly measurable outcomes
- Active involvement of partners and stakeholders
- Long-term sustainability beyond initial funding
- Well-defined implementation plans
- Strong financial stewardship and compliance

Projects lacking these elements risk reduced impact and diminished credibility.

Applying for a Global Grant: Key Requirements

To qualify for a Global Grant, clubs must meet specific criteria:

- Minimum project budget of USD 30,000
- Participation of at least two clubs (host and international partner)
- Club qualification compliance
- Approval from the District Rotary Foundation Committee (DRFC) and District Governor (DG) if District Designated Funds (DDF) are involved
- Submission through rotary.org

These requirements ensure readiness, accountability, and alignment with Foundation standards.

PRATIDHWANI THE 36TH DISTRICT CONFERENCE

EDITORIAL

Greetings, fellow Rotarians,

November marks a critical phase in the Rotary year 2025–26. The initial enthusiasm of the year has settled, leadership teams are fully in place, and clubs are now operating in execution mode. This is the month where intent must consistently convert into visible action.

By November, planning is no longer the priority. Delivery is. Across the district, clubs have initiated service projects, strengthened fellowship, and engaged members in meaningful ways. This is the stage of the year where discipline, continuity, and teamwork determine whether goals will be achieved. The stories shared in this edition reflect clubs that are moving steadily from ideas to outcomes.

The strength of this newsletter lies in shared experience. When clubs document not only their successes but also their processes, challenges, and solutions, others benefit. I encourage clubs to actively contribute their stories, project insights, and innovative approaches. The GML should function as a knowledge-sharing resource that supports better planning and execution across the district.

As we move toward the midpoint of the Rotary year, this is an ideal time for clubs to review progress, recalibrate where necessary, and strengthen collaboration. Sustained impact is built through consistency, not one-time effort.

November, observed as The Rotary Foundation Month, showcased the remarkable dedication of clubs across District 3240. Clubs engaged in community development initiatives, vocational training, and local enterprise promotion, demonstrating Rotary's focus on empowerment, self-reliance, and sustainable growth.

We extend heartfelt gratitude to all Rotarians and donors whose continued engagement makes these accomplishments possible. May the spirit of The Rotary Foundation inspire hope, strengthen communities, and guide us toward a brighter, inclusive future—united in service and fellowship.

Let us use November to reinforce momentum, sharpen focus, and continue delivering service that creates lasting value in our communities.

Warm Regards,
Yours in Rotary
