ICONIC SPOTS OF DISTRICT 3080

Chaneti Buddhist Stupa is a 3rd century BC monument protected by the Government of India. The stupa is located in the Yamunanagar district of Haryana, three kilometers east of Jagadhri, and about three kilometers northwest of the archaeological site Sugh. The stupa has been referred by traveller Hiuen Tsang.

This baked brick stupa was built by stacking concentric layers on top of one another, each time leaving a space on the layer beneath it, to give the overall structure a hemispherical appearance. As a result, this stupa matches Taxila's Shahpur and Dharmarajika stupas.

Water, Sanitation & Hygiene Month MARCH

WATER, SANITATION AND HYGIENE MONTH – AWAKENING HOPE THROUGH PURE WATER AND DIGNITY

March dawns across Rotary International as Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) Month, a sacred call for Rotarians everywhere to champion safe water, true sanitation, and life-changing hygiene for all. This vibrant month stirs the soul, reminding us that clean water flows as a lifeline, sanitation restores human dignity, and hygiene shields the vulnerable.

The Heartbeat of WASH Service

Water, Sanitation and Hygiene pulse at the core of Rotary's mission to heal and uplift communities. They whisper to every Rotarian that a single well, a simple latrine, or a handwashing station can spark miracles—saving lives, freeing dreams, and kindling hope where despair once lingered. This focus shines through three profound pillars:

Safe Water's Promise: Rotarians ignite joy by delivering clean, nearby water sources that lift the yoke from weary shoulders, especially for women and children, while vanquishing deadly waterborne diseases. With sustainable wells, smart technology, and empowered communities, we turn thirst into triumph.

Sanitation's Sacred Dignity: We build not just toilets and waste systems, but havens of privacy, safety, and respect that honor every life and nurture our planet. Sanitation rises as a beacon of human worth, transforming vulnerability into strength.

Hygiene's Gentle Power: Clubs spread the gospel of handwashing with soap, menstrual care, and safe storage—small acts that unleash mighty protection against illness. Through heartfelt education, we awaken lasting habits that safeguard generations.

Igniting Action in WASH Month

Across March, Rotary Clubs worldwide burst into inspired action, weaving WASH into the fabric of hope. Members light up schools and villages with stirring awareness talks, revealing how clean practices unlock healthier, brighter tomorrows. Clubs rally for water purity tests, revive broken pumps with urgent love, and partner with leaders to forge unbreakable community lifelines.

Countless hearts unite in enduring quests—erecting vibrant handwashing hubs, elevating school toilets to sanctuaries, or harvesting rain to quench parched lands. By training devoted local guardians, we ensure these gifts of grace endure, blooming into self-sustaining legacies of care.

The Eternal Call of WASH Service

Water, Sanitation and Hygiene propel Rotary's sacred vows: thwarting disease, cradling mothers and children, and forging thriving communities. When a family drinks without fear, relieves themselves in peace, and washes away peril, they claim not just survival, but radiant futures brimming with possibility.

As Rotarians, we bear this torch together—advocating clean water and sanitation as birth rights of humanity. With people-first projects, rooted in culture and cradled by nature, we sow seeds of change that flourish eternally.

WASH Month beckons every Rotarian to pause, feel the urgent beat of this cause, and rise with renewed fire. Let us fuse our talents, treasures, and tender hearts to quench thirst, exalt dignity, and let cleanliness cascade as a blessing for all, year after year.

THE REACH OF COMMUNITY ACTION

Water connects us all. From a river in a remote forest to a stream running past a city neighborhood, freshwater ecosystems sustain humanity. Yet these waters are increasingly under strain. Pollution, overuse, and climate pressures remind us that protecting freshwater is a global challenge.

Rotary has always believed change begins within communities. Now we are working to see how far the impact of community action can travel. When local service is connected, measured, and shared, it becomes a force that extends beyond geography and borders.

A water project led by the Rotary Club of Panamá Nordeste exemplifies this idea. The project served Indigenous communities in Panama's Darién province, a region accessible only by canoe and small boat. With no roads, limited electricity, and reliance on untreated river water, families faced serious health risks.

To reach these communities, Rotarians had to rethink how supplies and services could be delivered. Working with a partner club in the United States and a specialized water organization, they introduced solar-powered water treatment systems for an area without access to an electrical grid. Local leaders were trained to operate and maintain the system, ensuring that clean water would continue flowing long after installation crews departed.

The results were immediate. Children who once missed school due to illness returned to classrooms. No longer needing to haul water from rivers, adults gained time and strength to work and support their families.

What began as a water project became a foundation for healthier, more resilient communities. This is how we extend our reach: combine local leadership with global partnerships, technical expertise, and long-term thinking.

That same spirit is at the heart of Rotary's partnership with the United Nations Environment Programme through the Community Action for Fresh Water initiative. Around the world, Rotary and Rotaract clubs are restoring waterways, protecting wetlands, and safeguarding vital freshwater sources. By collecting data to map and measure this work, we can better understand its impact and show how local service contributes to worldwide solutions.

Data is not an end. It is a tool that helps us learn and improve so that Rotary's service delivers real, measurable change. Each project entered and each waterway restored adds to a shared story of stewardship and responsibility. You can learn more and get involved at communityactionforfreshwater.org.

As we observe Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene Month, I encourage you to reflect on the freshwater systems that sustain your community and the role Rotary can play in protecting them.

When we connect local action to a global vision, we strengthen Rotary's ability to make lasting change. Together, by extending our reach and working side by side, we truly Unite for Good.

Message from The District Governor

My dear friends,

March, in the Rotary world, is dedicated to Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) — a theme that touches the very essence of life and dignity. As we reflect on our service journey this Rotary year, it is worth remembering that clean water and proper sanitation are not luxuries, but basic human rights. Yet, millions across the globe still live without them.

Rotary's commitment to WASH is not just about building toilets or installing filters and water coolers at schools. It is about creating sustainable systems that uplift communities, reduce disease, and restore human potential. When we provide safe water near a village or at a school, we give children comfort to learn better. When we build toilets in schools, we give girls a reason to continue their education with pride and safety. When we teach hygiene practices, we prevent illness before it begins.

This month, let us renew our resolve to make our service projects more impactful and enduring. Wherever possible, let us integrate WASH into our ongoing initiatives in schools, health camps, and community development programs, recognizing that every drop saved and every hand washed is a victory for humanity.

As we move toward the close of this Rotary year, may we reaffirm our belief that true service is when we create lasting impact that outlives us. Together, we can transform scarcity into hope, and hope into lasting well-being.

Let's keep the waters of compassion and service flowing pure, clear, and unstoppable!!
Thank you for your Rotary Service!

Message from The First Lady

Dear Rotary Family,
March is a month that invites reflection on life, on creation, and on the quiet grace of water that sustains it all. The Rotary theme WASH reminds us that true service begins where compassion meets necessity.

Water is not merely a need; it is poetry in motion, flowing silently through fields, homes, and hearts. Yet, for many, this poetry is interrupted by scarcity. Somewhere, a mother waits for clean water with hope cupped in her palms, a child waits for a clean sip at his home and school, and usually, entire communities dream of the comfort that we the privileged ones often take for granted.

Rotary's work in this area is deeply human. By providing clean water, we restore laughter. By building school toilets, we gift girls with safety and confidence. Through hygiene education, we trade charity for empowerment.

As women, we understand the language of care. It is in our instinct to nurture, to heal, and to restore. Let our compassion ripple outward this month. As we nurture our projects and our communities, may we move with the steady purpose and may our hearts remain like clear water that reflects kindness, carries hope, and nourishes life wherever it flows.

In Rotary service with you all,

Shalini Prakash

Editorial

There is something profoundly sacred about water. It is the first lullaby of the earth, a mirror that reflects both life and hope. Water is not just a resource. It is an architect of possibility. It shapes the growth of civilizations, sculpts the rhythm of communities, and quietly builds the foundation of health and dignity. In schools, especially, clean water becomes a cornerstone for learning. A hydrated child listens better, dreams deeper, and carries within them the promise of a healthier tomorrow. When we ensure that every classroom has safe drinking water, we are not merely providing infrastructure, we are nurturing futures.

Sometimes, the meaning of Rotary's work reveals itself in the simplest of moments. Many years ago, as a young man, I experienced one such moment that has stayed with me ever since. I was standing in the courtyard of the Registrar's Office in Roorkee, when I saw an elderly villager approach a newly installed water cooling unit, installed by Rotary Club Roorkee Midtown, the home club of the District Governor and my beloved father. He had come to the town to complete the paperwork to sell his small piece of land. I distinctly remember that day was very harsh and hot. As he cupped his hands and sipped the chilled, clean water, his tired eyes softened. There was gratitude in his silence not expressed in words, but reflected in the pause of that gentle sip.

That moment, humble and fleeting, brought immense satisfaction. I learned then that even a small Rotary act like a water cooler in a public place can touch lives in ways we rarely imagine. It is these acts that turn service into art, where compassion becomes design, and empathy becomes structure.

Let us envision our service as a living architecture of care where every water purifier is a pillar, every hygiene project is a beam and every drop of clean water is a brick in the edifice of a better world.

When we give the gift of clean water, we don't just quench thirst; we affirm dignity. When we bring sanitation to a school, we don't just build facilities; we craft foundations for confidence. And when we make hygiene a habit, we create a culture that respects life itself. Let us, as Rotarians, continue to build that architecture graceful, enduring, and filled with the quiet music of service.

Club in Focus: Rotary Gharaunda

Club President: Rtn. Harbans Lal Chugh

Chartered on 29th March 1984, Rotary Club Gharaunda is one of the active clubs of Rotary International District 3080. Inspired by the leadership of President Rtn. H. L. Club, the club continues its journey of meaningful service. Rotary Club of Gharaunda has always believed that true service lies in creating sustainable initiatives that bring long-term benefits to the community. The club's commitment to "Service Above Self" is reflected in the several permanent projects that continue to serve local residents year after year, strengthening education, empowering women, and promoting healthy lifestyles.

One of the club's most impactful initiatives is the Sewing Centre, which has been running successfully under the dedicated leadership of Rtn. H. L. Chugh. The center provides vocational training to women and girls from economically weaker sections, enabling them to acquire useful tailoring and stitching skills. Many beneficiaries have gone on to start their own small businesses or find employment, thereby contributing to their households' income and self-reliance. The initiative not only fosters financial independence but also uplifts the socio-economic status of numerous families in and around Gharaunda.

Equally noteworthy is the club's contribution to sports and youth development through the establishment of a Badminton Hall, spearheaded by Rtn. Dr. Satpal. The hall provides a modern facility for local youth to practice and play in a safe and supportive environment. By encouraging young people to engage in physical fitness, discipline, and sportsmanship, this project aligns perfectly with Rotary's focus on community development and the well-being of future generations. Regular coaching sessions and local tournaments have made the hall a hub for sporting activities in the area.

Education has always been at the heart of Rotary's service mission, and the Construction of Three New Rooms in the Government Primary School adopted by Rotary Club Gharaunda stands as a testament to that vision. The additional classrooms have helped reduce overcrowding, providing students a more comfortable and conducive learning environment. The club also ensures that the school receives periodic support in terms of educational materials and infrastructural improvements, enhancing both teaching and learning experiences.

Through these enduring projects, Rotary Club of Gharaunda continues to touch lives, empower communities, and build bridges of hope. Each initiative—whether skill-based, educational, or recreational—illustrates Rotary's unwavering spirit of service and its commitment to a brighter, more self-reliant future for all.

DISCON - KSHITIJ at Haridwar – A Memorable Confluence of Service, Leadership and Fellowship

Dear Rotarians of Distt.3080!

It gives me immense pleasure to reflect upon the memorable and inspiring moments of DISCON 2026 – KSHITIJ - 28th Feb & 01st March 2026, held in the spiritually vibrant city of Haridwar. ### Honouring Service in Its Truest Form

At the heart of Rotary lies selfless service, and DISCON 2026 gave us many meaningful moments to celebrate that spirit.

Such initiatives continue to define the purpose of our collective efforts.

A Beautiful Blend of Learning, Fellowship and Celebration

DISCON 2026 was thoughtfully curated to offer a rich and engaging experience for every delegate. The conference successfully balanced meaningful discussions, inspiring speakers, cultural presentations and moments of joy and fellowship.

The post-lunch session featured distinguished speakers such as Dr. Deeba Arif and Maj. DP Singh, whose insightful and powerful presentations left a lasting impression on the audience. Their messages on resilience, courage and human potential added great value to the conference experience.

At the same time, the conference also celebrated the lighter side of fellowship. Performances by Angad Singh, Bhavya Trikha, and the much-appreciated presentation by RJ Naved brought laughter, energy and warmth to the gathering, reinforcing the spirit of togetherness that Rotary so beautifully fosters.

A particularly unique and memorable highlight was the Culinary Awards and the release of the Cook Book, which celebrated the creativity and diverse talents of our Rotary family in a delightful and refreshing manner.

The evening of Entertainment, Fellowship and Dinner was another cherished aspect of the conference, providing members an opportunity to connect beyond formal sessions, renew friendships and strengthen the bonds that make Rotary truly special.
