A NEWSLETTER BY ROTARY CLUB OF MUMBAI SHER E PUNJAB

FROM THE PRESIDENTS DESK

“Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success.” – Henry Ford

Dear Fellow Rotarians and Community Members - As we reflect on the achievements of this quarter, it is truly heartening to see the Rotary spirit shine brightly in all our endeavours. The Rotary Club of Mumbai Sher-e-Punjab (RCMSEP) has consistently upheld its commitment to “Service Above Self,” addressing diverse community needs with compassion, innovation, and teamwork.

This quarter, our Club completed 40+ impactful projects impacting the lives of 4000+ beneficiaries, while taking significant strides in advancing key Rotary's focus areas of 'Basic Education & Literacy' and 'Community Development'. Our flagship initiative “RISE” (RCMSEP initiative to support Education) continued uninterrupted, serving the needs of the youth community, who have tremendous zeal to learn and grow, but can't afford to bear the educational expenses. Simultaneously, the continual Annapoorna initiative exemplified our dedication to community development, distributing nutritious snacks, meals, and ration kits to migrant worker families, specially-abled children, Children with life-threatening illnesses, Transgenders, HIV patients and those affected by unforeseen crises like the massive fire, that erupted in Bhangarwadi slums. Together, these projects underscore our mission to empower individuals and strengthen communities by addressing immediate needs while fostering long-term growth and self-reliance.

The Quarter is also devoted to the upliftment of youth and their empowerment & engagement. Our Club has deeply invested in nurturing the leaders of tomorrow. The formation of 2 new Interact Clubs and 1 Rotaract Club has empowered, young minds, to engage in leadership, teamwork, and community service. Multiple joint projects were completed with these young leaders, thereby providing a dynamic platform continue to channelise the energy of our youth toward meaningful contributions.

The Club members actively participated & celebrated all the festivals such as Diwali, Dandiya, Christmas, Children's Day, Veer Bal Divas etc. The Children's Day celebration was another highlight, bringing joy and laughter to hundreds of children through games, ventriloquist show, Self-defence & First-Aid workshops, Competitions and creative entertainment. The donation of Diwali gifts to children battling cancer demonstrated our compassion and ability to spread hope, even in challenging times. It was specially inspiring to witness our young Interactors, engage & entertain the senior citizen inmates of the local old age home and spreading smiles. Moments like these remind us of the power of collective action to create lasting memories.

All in all, the Club fulfilled its goal of working across all the 7 focus areas of Rotary International & the key focus areas of our District-3141.

None of these achievements would have been possible without the active involvement of our members, partners, and other donors. Together, we have turned ideas into impactful actions. Let us continue to dream big and work tirelessly to make those dreams a reality.

“Alone, we can do so little; together, we can do so much.” – Helen Keller

Yours in Rotary Service,

Rtn. Jotinder Singh Ahluwalia – Club President (2024-25)

"A Daughter's Ode to Her First and Forever Friend"

– By Ms. Shruti Bhoocher (Daughter of Rtn. Seema & Rtn. Arun Bhoocher – VP - RCMSEP)

Mom, Muma, Maa & Ammi they have multiple names, multiple roles & the most underrated person in the family. Yet an amazing person who always surprises me on how incredible she is....

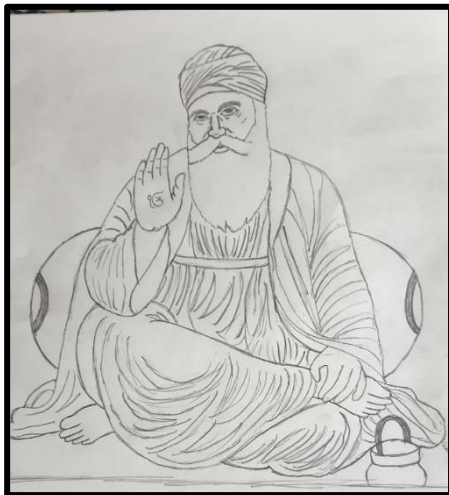

As my first friend, my best friend and my forever friend we both grew up! A woman who can play everybody's role but nobody can be like her. I, as her daughter have a love & hate relationship with my mother. We fight, we argue, we don't speak to each other for hours and sometime days, but we eventually cannot live without irritating each other and dancing like a monkey in-front of each other. Her laughing fits annoy me, as I am not that happy-go-lucky type, but then if she doesn't, I genuinely miss her laughter.

I still wonder, why all mom's (brown moms only) give up their share of food / materialistic item, only because their kid / husband / anybody else loves it? Loving yourself is more important, but maybe this wasn't taught before, and women were told to sacrifice, adjust and all that. Mom, personally, I wouldn't want you to give up on anything you like, only because me or papa like it more!

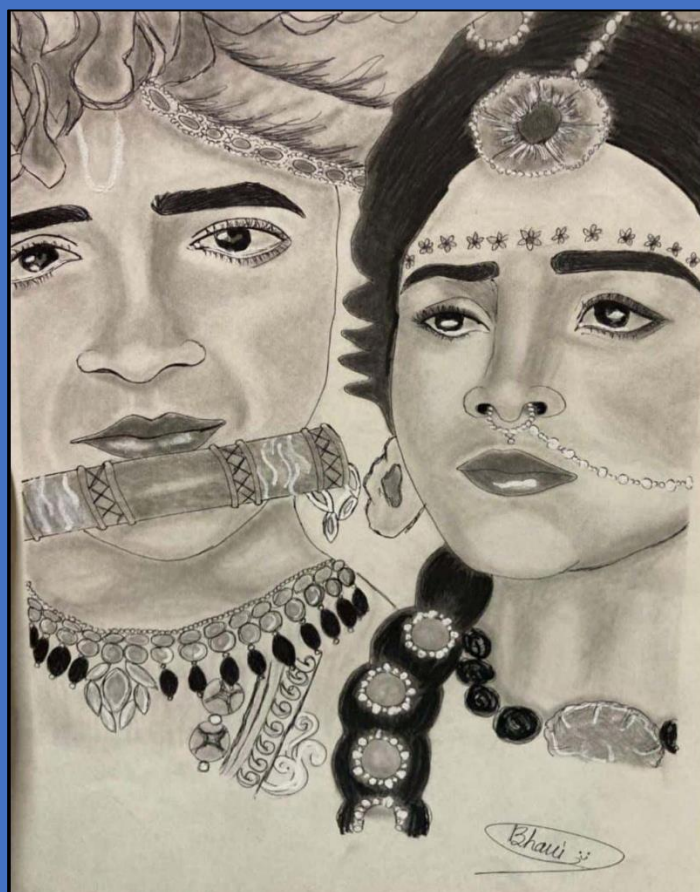

YOU ARE EQUALLY IMPORTANT FOR ME AND PAPA. Your needs are as important as ours.

Lastly, I LOVE YOU MOM, not just saying this for social media, like most kids nowadays do, but I genuinely mean it.

To all young / new moms, to-be moms (all moms) out there: Just know that YOU ARE FIRE & STORM (both in one person). You can shake the entire world if you want.

Title: Tears Speak Louder than Words

Artist's Impression

This poignant piece was born from a period of deep contemplation, where I reflected on the fleeting nature of divine love in today's chaotic world. I pondered the fate of pure relationships, even among goddesses, in this era of Kalyug.

Inspiration and Meaning

This artwork transcends a simple love story, instead highlighting the trust that forms the foundation of any relationship. In an age where materialism often overshadows emotional bonds, I drew inspiration from the selfless love shared between Radha Ji and Krishna Ji.

A Call to Action

Through this piece, I aim to spread love and kindness, starting with my own community. As a member of the Interact Club of Guru Nanak Bravehearts, I'm committed to promoting love and assistance in this Kaliyug. Our Interact Club is definitely a testament to this endeavor.

A Message of Hope

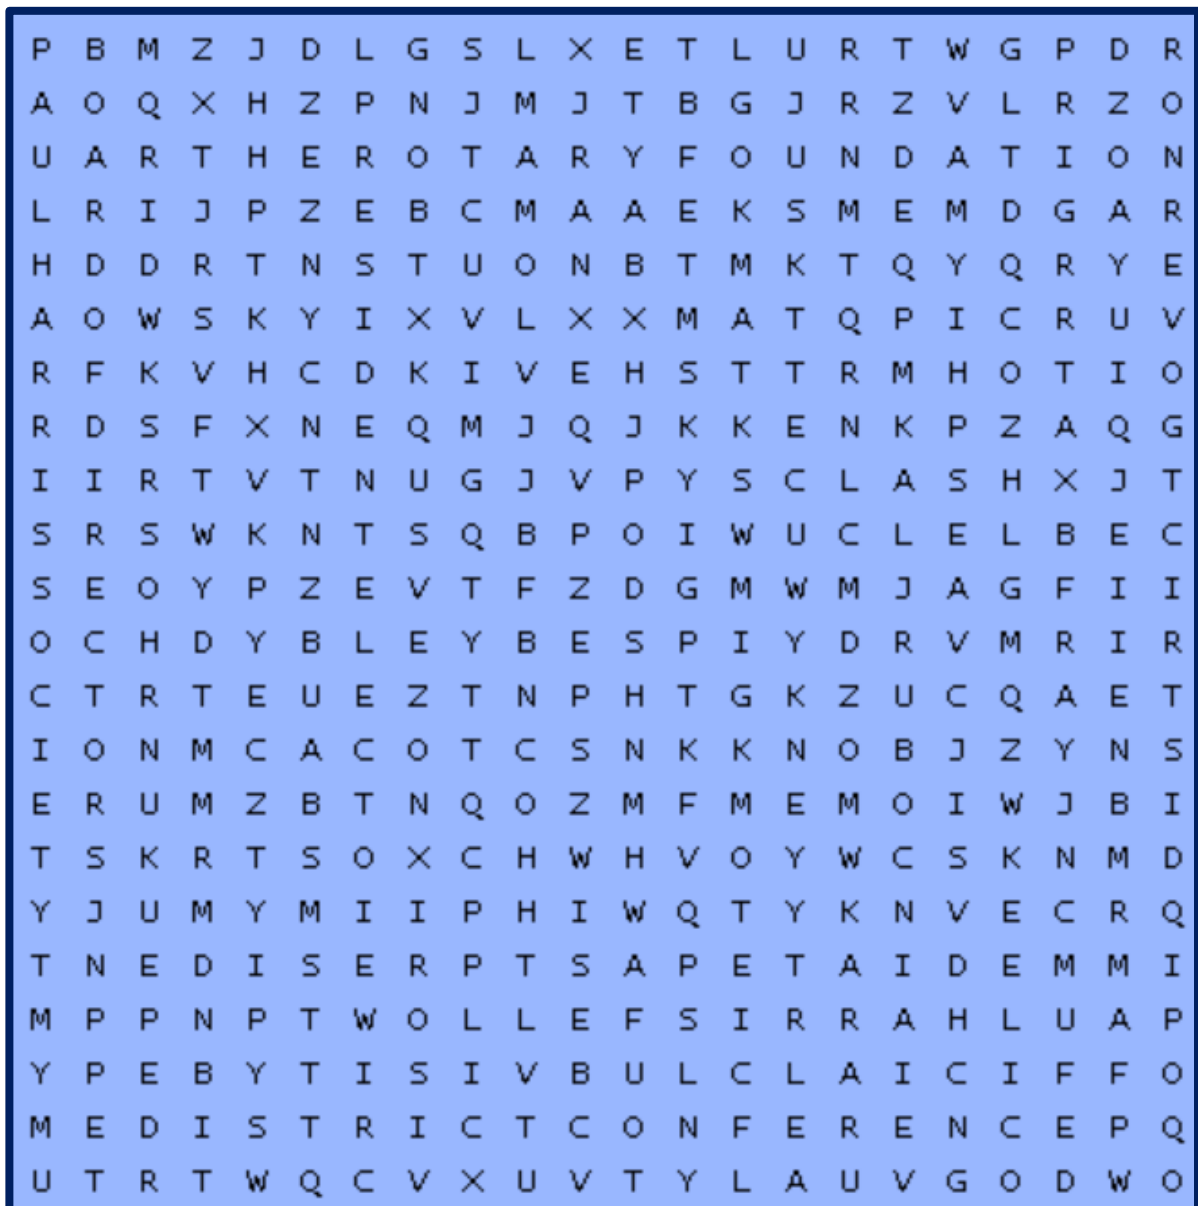

My art aspires to bring joy and smiles to those around me, rather than sorrowful expressions. I believe that by spreading love and kindness, we can create a brighter, more compassionate world.
