MAGNUM CARNIVAL

India's Independence Day celebrated right

15th August is marked in our calendars not only as Independence Day but also as the day we celebrate The Magnum Carnival. It is the most awaited annual event for Magnumites. This year, the Magnum Carnival 5.0 arranged a visit to Vandalur Zoo for 1500 under privileged children.

It is true that Teamwork makes the Dreamwork and this Magnum Carnival exemplifies this adage. Everyone stands United in their ideology to work towards a better world by doing their bit and then divided into teams for immaculate planning and seamless execution.

Each and every Member and Ann stepped in to contribute in ways more than one. BTS is as exciting as the main event. Numerous meetings and hours of discussions. Starting with freezing the venue, raising of funds in cash and kind, coordination with institutions and logistics, social media marketing, food, goodie bags packing, venue coordination, every aspect of the event was well thought off and delegated to members for perfect implementation.

On the day of the Carnival, 50 members, Ann's and annets were at the venue by 7 am. Buses with children arrived at 8 and were welcomed with a backpack, cap, water bottle and scrumptious breakfast after which they entered the zoo. The excitement was phenomenal. Most of them had never visited the zoo before. Once they were done going around the zoo and clicking pictures, they were served lunch. Each child was given a goodie bag with lot of eatables and stationery at departure.

A sense of fulfillment was all that was there at the end of the day. Looking forward to the next season of Magnum Carnival.

SPREADING HAPPINESS

We take life so much for granted, that we often forget the most important joy of life, #GIVING.

This 15th August The Rotary Club of Madras Magnum conducted it's Annual fundraiser , where we had taken almost 1500 lesser privileged kids from 10 different schools for a day of fun to Vandalur Zoo, we had organized breakfast, lunch, zoo tickets, transport and a big goodie bag for the finisher.

This was no easy task, but our dedicated members made it look like a walk in the park.

Attached are some images from the event, just look at the smile and happiness on the faces of these students. These are the most priceless moments of life.

Proud to be a part of this wonderful club. The only thing on our minds is to give to the lesser privileged.

Funds raised from this event go into construction of toilet blocks, class rooms, and kitchen sheds among other things for deserving schools.

NEETU BAID

I'm enough

As a child I was very ambitious and My dad always thought me to dream big. I participated in a lot of entrepreneurial activities in college and always aspired to do something of my own. Started my career with an event management company which hosted events for Glaxo, Deccan chronicle and other women exhibitions. Took a break from event business and later I started my own export company. In the start was a great struggle with lot of paperworks but gained a lot of knowledge. The fact that I could master the complex situation gave me a lot of self-confidence . Currently exporting Pu foam, Mattress and pillows . My work gives me a great satisfaction. I am happy with what I am currently doing and keeping myself busy with work and family. My family has been extremely supportive and my gratitude to them. I totally believe that we as parents need to set and encourage our children today's any goal because it really plays in their sub conscious mind.

I totally believe in this saying that –“passion is the fuel behind any success”

FELLOWSHIP

It's party time

Grooving in Bollywood music with our dancing shoes on the night was truly to remember.

The unwinding and catching up with our magnum family came as a fresh breath of air.

The dj was engaging and played some wonderful tracks and our dancers were exceptional.

This fellowship curated by Tapasya Twinkle and Ankit gave us a chance to be ourselves and kept our spirits high.

Cheers 🍷🍷
