DIWALI MEET

A fun filled evening with great mixes, amazing starters, music and of course a World Cup India vs SA match live(which we won).

The lit up Diwali fellowship at Blend, Taj Mount was organized superbly by Karishma, Pooja, Amit and Praveen with everyone dressed up in Indian ethnic wear in keeping with the Diwali mood and everyone 'jhoomed' with the Bollywood music through-out the evening tapering into 80's and 90's English music which brought out the nostalgic feelings in everyone.

All present had a great time catching up, having fun, pulling each others legs and laughing our hearts out. It was so much fun that many did not want to leave even after our booking time got over and people moved out slowly filled with great food, drinks and memories to last a long time.

SPORTS MEET

On a Rainy Sunday evening (26th Nov), enthusiastic members & Annettes of Magnum turned up at Shuttlers in Royapettah. We had a couple of entertaining games of Badminton. It was after quite some time that a sports meet was being organised & all those present that day thoroughly enjoyed the evening. The icing on the cake was the visit to Eating circles for some snacks & chit chat. Overall, a fun evening & time well spent.

The wealth of experience Preethi holds alongside staying updated with the latest products & trends, enables her to deliver for all age-types, skin-types & occasions.

Her take on makeup

Preethi Says

"I like to emphasize on eyes, whether I am working on a model or a bride-to-be. Eyes to me are most intriguing feature as they don't just bare beauty but have the magical power to add a touch of brightness to the rest of the makeup.

Simple or dramatic, subdued or bright, depending on the occasion and the person being styled, creating a stunning, memorable look is what drives my styling techniques. Less is More. Only if you know, how to make 'less' the core.

Traditionally heavy layers of foundation are expected with many brides / their mothers insist that the foundation should 'show'. The truth is, one actually needs a minimal amount just to form an even base. Lesser known techniques like using lip liners are must as it prevents the lipstick from bleeding.

I believe makeup that looks like it's barely there makes brides and models look more naturally beautiful, and that's what I aim for when I work with them."
