Discussion Points:

- President called the meeting to order and Rtn Mala Chakraborty led the National Anthem
- The President apprised the members about the completion of the project at Kultoli. He thanked Rtns. Dipak, Kumkum, Indumoti, Ujjaini and Annes Moushumi and Soma, for being present at the project.
- He mentioned the following projects lined up for the near future:
  - a) Donation of a de-humidifier and an air purifier donated by Rtn. Sharmila to Calcutta Heart Clinic in Salt Lake. In addition, plans are on for the donation of a wheelchair.
  - b) He apprised the members about 'Life Beyond Cancer' project, where Rs.15000/ is required for sponsoring a single, cancer affected, child's treatment, diet and well-being.
  - c) The President further mentioned his plans to repair and paint a classroom at Mahishbathan School and donate chairs and fans as per their requirement.
  - d) As per Rtn. Dipak's proposal, there are plans to sponsor proper meals to TB affected patients for 3 to 6 months.
- The President has decided to return Rs.25,000 to a scientist who had invested this amount for production of easily available water filters. The project never took off. Rtn. Bhaskar, after several follow ups has been able to recover the money from the company which was responsible for the production of the filters.
- Discussions have taken place with Rtn. Swapan Bhaduri to start a RCC next month.

- Rtn. Debdip surprised the members by publishing a printed version of SPARK, special edition on “Moner Taaney” mela which had pictures and feedbacks of the participants in the mela.

- Next date of the meeting has been fixed on 6th Feb’25.

Fellowship: 31st Jan'25

The members of RCSLDT and their families had a truly musical gathering on the evening of January 31st at the CF Community Hall in Salt Lake. Everyone performed brilliantly! Rtn. Soumen and Sangita's rendition of "Ye Rate..." was so soft and beautiful, it touched everyone's heart. Meanwhile, Rtn. Shomik, the youngest member of our club, amazed us all with his brilliance by playing multiple musical instruments simultaneously. His performance was electrifying! The way he blended the pure Eastern melody of the flute with the Western rhythm of the Spanish guitar was a testament to his exceptional skill, and he executed it with great flair. Shomik was the true showstopper of the night!

At the end of the evening, Rtn. Debdip's presentation took us to Ladakh, a dream destination for many. The stunning photos of breathtaking Ladakh landscapes, the unforgettable moments, and Debdip's witty storytelling kept us fully engaged.

A special thanks to Rtn. Deepak Mitra and Anne Mousumi for arranging such a delicious biryani for all of us—everyone absolutely loved it.

Finally, heartfelt thanks to Rtn. Mala Chakraborty for organizing such a wonderful program. We all eagerly look forward to many more memorable events from the club in the coming months.
