Discussion Points:

- President called the meeting to order and Rtn Mala Chakraborty led the National Anthem
- The President welcomed Rtn. Bikash Saha, a former member of our club and Rtn. Debabrata Bhowmik from Rotary Club of Aarohi.
- Rtn. Bikash apprised the members about the different types of charitable work their club does. He mentioned that they have received the Global Grant to purchase and donate dialysis machines to Belegkata hospital. He appealed to our club to co-host their club project of distributing cricketing kits to budding cricketers from remote villages. The co-hosting charges were Rs.5000/- per club.
- President urged Rtn. Debdip to inform the members about the details of the forthcoming family trip. Rtn. Debdip laid out the details and logistics of our travel to Satkosia, Odisha.
- Thereafter the President appealed to all members to consider an increase of the membership dues by Rs.1000/- p.a.
- Rtn. Shibanshu Chaki has been formally requested to be an honorary member of our Club.
- Rtn. Sharmila expressed her wish to donate furniture to the old age home run by the NGO Jagoroni.
- The President expressed his eagerness to extend help to the school in Mahishbathan. Plans are in place to visit the school next 22nd morning to enquire about their immediate requirements.
- Next date of the meeting has been fixed on 6th Feb'25.

Family trip to Satkosia: 12th ~ 15th Feb'25

Our Club members and their spouses enjoyed a trip to Satkosia Eco Retreat near Bhubaneswar. The two days that we spent at the place was not only full of fun and adventure but also relaxed and comfortable as well. The members indulged in adventure sports like boat rides, hiking, kayaking, and cycling.

The evenings were well spent by playing interesting games arranged by Anne Kumkum. Beautiful renditions of songs by the Rotarians and Annes kept us enthralled. The resort had a crooner who entertained us with popular Hindi and Oriya songs.

The tents provided was very cosy with all modern amenities. The service of the staff was extremely praiseworthy as they pampered us throughout our stay. On the whole, the trip was a huge success, thanks to the organisers Rtn. Debdip, Dipak and Soumen. This trip would remain etched in our memory for many more years to come.
