Project: Mango seeds donation to “Mango Man” – 11th August 2024

On 11th August 24 the President Tapas, Executive Secretary Dipak, IPP Dewan, Club Secretary Kumkum and Club Service Director Mala, her family visited Mr.

Harmit Singh’s residence at Bangur to hand over mango seeds collected over a period of 2 months.

It was a very inspiring experience for everyone who marvelled at Mr. Singh’s dedication to the cause of improving and bringing about a positive impact in the environment. His aim was and still is to plant crores of mango trees, in West Bengal and in other states subsequently. He is getting a lot of cooperation from the army as well as schools all over the state. He welcomed our limited contribution of the seeds and promised to keep in touch with us for future similar project

Project: Flag hoisting with visually challenged people at Workshop for blinds – 15th August 2024

On our 78th Independence Day, Our Club took part in the flag hoisting ceremony of an organization for the visually challenged, known as the Workshop for the Blind. President Tapas, First Lady Soma, IPP Dewan, Executive Secretary Dipak, Club secretary Kumkum, and other Rotarians and family members participated.

The program started with the distribution of flags and hoisting of the tricolour. Thereafter the National Anthem was sung by all the members of this institution. The secretary of the workshop delivered a short speech about the history of the institution, which was followed by some excellent rendition of patriot songs by the trainees. The songs sung by the group and the recitation program was heart touching. The President thanked the members for the presentation, he also promised to extend our help to the institution.

Event: Fellowship at Rtn. Deepak Mitra's house – 15th August 2024

RCSLDT members and their spouses gathered at Rtn. Dipak and Moushumi's residence for lunch.

New member Rtn. Swapan Bhaduri was formally inducted to the Rotary family. He was handed over the lapel pin and the kit.

Rtn. Mala described the logistics of the forthcoming Mela on December 15th. She requested all members and their spouses for their wholehearted cooperation and urged everyone to participate and contribute in whatever way possible.

Lunch was served thereafter when khichri, fried hilsa and sweets from Suresh was served; this was planned and executed by Rtn. Mala, Kumkum (Dewan) and Rtn, Soumen. The afternoon was well-spent where plans were made for an overnight trip and a picnic
