Vocational Service

emphasises upholding and promoting the highest ethical standards in all professions, ensuring fairness in interactions with employers, employees, associates, competitors, and the public. It recognises the value and dignity of all useful occupations, fostering respect beyond those pursued by Rotarians.

Through Vocational Service, individuals are encouraged to apply their professional skills and talents to address societal challenges and contribute meaningfully to the needs of their communities.

JANUARY IS

"Of all the hundred and one ways in which men can make themselves useful to society, undoubtedly the most available and often the most effective are within the spheres of their own occupations." Paul P Harris

Club at Free to be Kids Christmas Celebration

The Rotary Club of Behala actively participated in the Free to Be Kids Christmas Celebration, spreading joy and warmth during the festive season. Representing the club, PP Rtn. Dr. Siddhartha Chakraborty and PP Rtn. Amaresh Bhattacharya attended the event, engaging with children and contributing to the cheerful atmosphere. Their presence underscored the club's commitment to community service and creating memorable experiences for young minds. The event was a beautiful reminder of the spirit of giving and the importance of bringing smiles to those who need it most.

RI District 3291 Recognised for:

1. Highest Annual Fund Contributions to TRF
2. Highest Per Capita Contributions- TRF
3. Highest Contributions to Endowment Fund- TRF

Board Meeting and Fellowship

The Rotary Club of Behala held a board meeting followed by a fellowship gathering at the residence of PP Rtn. Probir Roy on 15th December 2024. The meeting provided an opportunity for meaningful discussions on upcoming projects and club initiatives, fostering collaboration and alignment among members. The fellowship that followed was a delightful occasion, marked by camaraderie and warm hospitality. PP Rtn. Probir Roy and his family went above and beyond to make everyone feel welcome, creating a cozy and inviting atmosphere. The highlight of the evening was the sumptuous spread of food, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all attendees.

The event strengthened bonds among members and exemplified the spirit of fellowship that is at the heart of Rotary. It was an evening to remember, filled with laughter, good food, and a shared commitment to serving the community.
