Health Check-up Camp with RCC Dhosa - 17 Nov 2024

The Rotary Club of Behala, in collaboration with Peerless Hospital, organized a comprehensive health check-up camp at RCC Dhosa on 17th November 2024, catering to over 150 beneficiaries from the local community. The initiative provided free medical services, including general health assessments, blood pressure and sugar level monitoring, and basic eye screenings. Participants received expert medical consultations, and prescribed medicines were distributed at no cost. To ensure the comfort of attendees, light refreshments were also served throughout the event. As a mark of appreciation and support, Rotary Behala presented a token financial contribution to RCC Dhosa to acknowledge their ongoing efforts in community welfare. The camp was widely appreciated for its well-organized approach and tangible benefits, reflecting Rotary's dedication to promoting public health and enhancing the well-being of underserved communities.

President Rtn Angsuman Bandopadhyay and Secretary Rtn Shuvratav Mitra were present in the camp to extend support to the RCC Volunteers.
