India's 77th Independence Day celebrated by Bengaloreans from different walks of life celebrate freedom in myriad ways. They have partnered with Rotary Clubs from all over the country and Decathlon India to promote cycling for health and the environment.

Starting August 15, the drive will continue till January 26, 2024 as the club aims to get over 50 million people to cycle over this period.

The first leg of this initiative took place on Tuesday August 15, 2023 in collaboration with the Border Security Force (BSF) stationed at Yelahanka.

The members of the rotary and security forces together cycled for 76 kilo-hoping to use the occasion to extend the freedom humans enjoy to animals living around them. A demonstration titled Freedom for All held by vegan activists from Bengaluru Brigade for Animal Liberation.

The idea is to reveal the anti-animal practices undertaken by various industries for the purpose of medical or cosmetic testing and human consumption.

The activists gathered at Sapper War Memorial on Brigade Road around 5pm to discuss the issue and showcase the pain endured by animals for the sake of human-run industries and lifestyle.

Acclaimed violin player, composer and conductor L. Subramaniam released his new piece titled the Mahatma Symphony. This composition features the Bologna Symphony and choir, along with vocals by playback singer Kavita Krishnamurthy. It debuted on all major streaming platforms on the eve of I-Day.
