ROTARY PEACE CENTERS:

The Rotary Peace Centers at seven leading universities around the world offer advanced educational opportunities for Rotary Peace Fellows, professionals who wish to pursue or advance a career in peacebuilding and conflict resolution. Each year, up to 100 fellows are selected from around the world to begin either a master’s degree or a certificate program in conflict resolution, peace studies, or international relations. Rotary districts may nominate as many candidates as they wish for the competitive selection process every year. Rotary Peace Fellows have gone on to serve as leaders in government, nongovernmental organizations, the military, law enforcement, education, humanitarian action, restorative justice, and international agencies such as the United Nations.

ROTARY GRANTS:

The Rotary Foundation offers grants that support humanitarian projects, scholarships, and vocational training teams. Global grants support large international projects with long-term, sustainable outcomes in one or more of Rotary’s areas of focus. They typically range from $30,000 to $200,000. District grants fund smaller-scale, short-term projects that address immediate needs in your community or abroad. Clubs can leverage Rotary Foundation grants with DDF and SHARE funds to maximize projects’ impact. To learn more, talk to your club or district Rotary Foundation committee chair or visit rotary.org/grants.

ROTARY COMMUNITY CORPS:

A Rotary Community Corps (RCC) is a Rotary club-sponsored group of nonRotarians who want to help their own community through service projects. Rotarians provide professional expertise guidance, encouragement, organizational structure, and some material assistance for the RCC, whose members contribute their labor and knowledge of community needs. This community based service program was initiated in 1986 to improve the quality of life in villages, neighborhoods, and other communities.

ROTARY YOUTH EXCHANGE:

Rotary Youth Exchange promotes international understanding and lifelong friendships by letting young people see another part of the world. Exchanges can be long-term or short-term. Short-term exchanges last from a few days to several months and often take place when school is not in session. Students typically stay with a local family in the host country, but they might also attend a youth camp or tour the country with other foreign students. During a long-term exchange, students spend a year in another country, attending school and living with host families. Exchanges vary widely among districts, so contact your district’s Youth Exchange chair to learn what’s available in your area.

INTERACT AND ROTARACT:

Interact clubs give young people 12-18 years old the chance to work together and have fun while learning about service and promoting international understanding. Each club is required to complete at least two major projects each year, one to serve the community and the other to promote international understanding. Rotaract clubs are service clubs for young people ages 18-30 that emphasize the importance of leadership and community involvement. Rotaractors can join Rotary clubs and enjoy dual membership until they leave Rotaract. Interact and Rotaract clubs are sponsored by nearby Rotary clubs. Rotary encourage members to get involved with local Interact and Rotaract clubs.
