2024 Paris Olympics

Paris prepares to host the 2024 Olympics, promising a unique and unforgettable experience for athletes and spectators alike. Unlike Olympic proceedings in the past - which operated primarily from a central "Olympic Village" - Paris is set to utilize its iconic cityscape and monuments as backdrops for the events, creating a spectacle like no other. The Summer 2024 Olympics are scheduled to start on Friday, July 26, 2024, and will run through Sunday, August 11, 2024. The 2024 Paris Olympics promises to be a one-of-a-kind celebration of sport and culture. The city itself will become the stage for various events, with athletes making grand entrances on the Seine River's picturesque riverboats. During the marquee events we can expect to see divers jumping off the Ile de la Cité, the majestic gardens of Versailles serving as the host of equestrian events, and more unique spectacles to showcase the City of Lights on the world's stage.

Will There Be New Sports in the 2024 Paris Olympics?

Yes; These sports include:

Breaking: An urban dance style that blends athleticism, artistry, and music.

Sport Climbing: A thrilling sport that involves climbing indoor and outdoor walls.

Skateboarding: A dynamic sport that combines tricks, style, and precision

Surfing: Riding the waves on surfboards, showcasing balance and agility. How is this possible, given Paris' landlocked location? Tahiti will be playing host - 10,000 miles away.

These additional events aim to add a fresh and youthful dimension to the Olympic program, making the Paris 2024 Olympics unlike any other. Two of these sports, skateboarding and surfing, had their debuts in the Tokyo 2021 Olympics, and now they will continue to be a part of the Olympic lineup in Paris.
