

As we celebrate the triumph of good over evil, may your life also be filled with positivity and success.

Happy Durga Puja!

ECONOMIC AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPEMENT OF ROTARY

Rotary International focuses on economic and community development as one of its seven areas of focus, especially during the month of October. Rotary members work to reduce poverty and promote economic development in under-served communities through a variety of initiative, including:

- * Training : Providing vocational training, financial management training and mobile banking resources.
- * Job opportunities : Creating oppurtunities for well paying jobs.
- * Financial access: Providing access to financial management institutions and microlenders.
- * Supporting entrepreneurs: Strengthening local entrepreneurs and community leaders, especially women.
- * Networking : Offering Networking activities.
- * Business development: Proving advice on new business development.

Rotary's economic and community development efforts are intended create measurable and long-term economic improvements in communities. We also help to meet the United nation's sustainable development Goal 8, which is to promote inclusive and sustainablr economic growth.
