Rotary Youth Service programs empower young leaders aged 12-30 through service, mentorship, and international exchange, fostering leadership and peace. Key initiatives include Interact , Rotaract , RYLA and Rotary Youth Exchange, involving 500,000 young people worldwide in community action

Interact Clubs (Ages 12-18): School or community-based clubs that take action, develop leadership skills, and gain international understanding.

Rotaract Clubs (Ages 18-30): Young adults who take action in their communities, develop leadership and professional skills, and have fun.

RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards): Intensive, 3-10 day training programs for young leaders to build communication and problem-solving skills, often held as retreats or seminars.

Rotary Youth Exchange (Ages 15-19): A 4-8 week or year-long exchange program where students live with host families, learn new cultures, and promote global peace.

New Generations Service Exchange: Short-term, customizable exchanges focusing on vocational service, leadership, and professional development.

Club Program Held

*Club Baisakhi adda held on 16 May'26, Saturday

A cultural program nicely knitted by Dr.Mrs Mita GHosh with recitation ,songs, dance performed by ladies and members of our club particularly by our little prodigy Aratrika made the evening of Baishakhi Adda memorable. Rabindranath was as usual in every sphere of the program as his presence in every daily chorus f our life. POT-LUCK dinner followed by the program completed the satiety centre.
