ROTARY INFORMATION

Fighting modern slavery

An estimated 40.3 million people around the world live in slavery involving either sexual exploitation or forced labour. A new partnership with Freedom United is giving Rotarians a chance to do something to stop it.

Rotary's patience in committing to a cause and its track record with polio have shown that Rotarians are willing to take mature, committed action toward long-term global change, even if it doesn't give immediate gratifying results.
