VOCATIONAL SERVICE

Vocational Service in Rotary aims to promote high ethical standards across all professions and businesses, emphasizing the value of every occupation in serving society. It encourages Rotarians to apply the principle of service not only in their personal and professional lives but also in their community engagements. Through this commitment, Rotary seeks to foster international understanding and peace, uniting professionals worldwide in a shared ideal of service. Paul Harris articulated that each Rotarian acts as a bridge between Rotary's ideals and their profession, underscoring the integral role of vocational service in Rotary's mission.
