United Nations and Rotary celebrate 80th anniversary of UN charter

Rotary International and the United Nations reaffirmed their historic partnership during the 80th anniversary of the UN Charter signing.

Leaders from both organizations recalled how, in the aftermath of World War II, Rotary helped shape the UN by serving as observers at the 1945 Charter Conference, contributing to agendas, resolutions, and mediation efforts.

Speakers emphasized that global cooperation is more vital than ever as the world faces conflicts, inequality, climate change, and technological risks.

Despite challenges to multilateralism, progress offers hope: education access has expanded, poverty has declined, and health outcomes have improved worldwide. UN leaders stressed that such achievements result from sustained collective action.

Rotary's grassroots initiatives align closely with UN agencies in education, health, peacebuilding, environmental protection, and the fight against polio. The enduring Rotary–UN relationship reflects a shared belief that peace is built through cooperation, service, and the everyday commitment of individuals choosing unity over division.

JANUARY – VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH

January is Vocational Service Month in Rotary, a time to focus on high ethical standards, recognizing the worthiness of all occupations, and using members' professional skills to serve the community, rooted in Rotary's principle of using one's profession as an opportunity to serve society. Rotarians use this month to promote integrity, learn about each other's careers, and apply their expertise in service projects.

Key aspects of Vocational Service Month:

- Core Principle: It highlights one of Rotary's five Avenues of Service (Club, Community, International, Youth, and Vocational).
- Ethical Focus: Adherence to and promotion of the highest ethical standards in all occupations, including fair treatment of employers, employees, associates, competitors, and the public, guided by The Four-Way Test.
- Professional Application: Members share their skills (medicine, tech, business, etc.) to help communities and mentor youth.
- Dignifying Work: Promotes the idea that every useful occupation is an opportunity to serve. The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, not just those that are pursued by Rotarians.

MAN WHO LEFT THE TOILET DOOR OPEN

A man gambled in a casino in Nepal. Unfortunately, he lost everything. Dejected, he headed for the restroom, only to find that the toilet door opened with a one-rupee coin. Distressed, he stood in front of the door. Another man noticed his predicament and gave him a one-rupee coin. The defeated gambler was grateful. He insisted on noting down the name and address of his benefactor and promised that, no matter what, he would repay his debt someday.

After the donor left, when he tried to open the door by putting the money in the crack, he found that the door was already open – coincidentally, when someone else had passed by, the door had not closed behind him.

Anyway, when he came out of the restroom and reached the lobby, he still had the one rupee he had borrowed. Driven by habit, the gambler put that rupee on the line, winning forty rupees. His fortunes took a turn, and that very night he not only made up for his lost one lakh rupees, but also won another five and a half lakh rupees. He then boarded a plane and flew to Bombay, where he used the money to open a fast food restaurant. That restaurant was so successful that within a few years, he opened fifteen similar restaurants across India and purchased a five-star deluxe hotel.

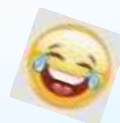

Then two hotels, then three hotels, then hotels abroad –

In his old age, he once narrated his success story in a meeting of his board of directors and said in a very emotional voice, "This miracle that happened to me happened because of one man, just one man. If I meet that man today, I would weigh him in gold and diamonds and jewels."

"That guy," said a director, "who gave you one rupee to put in the toilet at a casino in Nepal?"

"No, not him. I have his address. I'm looking for the man who left the toilet door open."
