

Our Chief Guest of the Day

A seasoned educationist and legislator with a rich background in public service. Born on July 1, 1959, in Anchedoddi, Mandya district, he holds a Master's degree in History from the University of Mysore. His early passion for leadership was evident during his student days, where he served multiple terms as Secretary and General Secretary in student unions.

A four-time elected Member of the Legislative Council (MLC) representing the South Teachers' Constituency, he also served as Deputy Chairman of the Karnataka Legislative Council from 2015 to 2018. Beyond politics, he has made significant contributions in cooperative banking, serving as director and chairman in several institutions, and is an active member of the Mysore Urban Development Authority since 2000.

Committed to educational reform, Marithibbegowda champions teacher development, technological integration in classrooms, and accessible higher education through digital platforms. His vision blends progressive educational policies with grassroots-level development, aiming to bridge the urban-rural divide in Karnataka's academic landscape.
