Six truckloads of waste removed from Kapila River

Nanjangud, Dec. 15 (BCT)- Yuva Brigade's "Kapila Kare" campaign, a large-scale cleaning drive of the sacred Kapila River in Nanjangud, drew strong support from several organisations and hundreds of youth volunteers. The river-cleaning initiative, which began on Friday, concluded on Sunday.

Over the three days, volunteers from Yuva Brigade, the Srikantheshwara Boat Association, Dharmasthala volunteers, students of NIE College, Mysuru, Rotary members and youths from Kempegowda Layout cleaned the Kapila rivererbank near the renowned Srikantheshwaraswamy Temple in Nanjangud, popularly known as Dakshina Kashi.

On Sunday, a large number of volunteers removed waste dumped in the River, including discarded clothes, earthen pots, malas, deity photographs, plastic covers and other puja materials.

Nearly six truckloads of waste were cleared, helping restore the river's clean and smooth flow. Volunteers also appealed to devotees to refrain from disposing of clothes and puja waste in the river, stressing the need for responsible practices and environmental awareness.

The Nanjangud City Municipal Council supported the drive by providing trucks and an earth mover for waste disposal, while the Srikantheshwara Temple arranged meals for the volunteers, which were served as prasada at the riverbank.

State Yuva Brigade Convener

Chandrashekhar, Nanjangud Taluk Yuva Brigade Convener Chandan, along with Sunil, Girish, Ravishastri, Ravi, Mahadev, Pavan, Soori, Prajwal, Charan, Arjun, and Shashank, participated in the drive.

Members of the Srikantheshwara Boat Association, including Suresh, Rangaswamy Subbanna and Chandru Srikanta, Dharmaraj from Dharmasthala, Rotary member Muruli, Raghavendra from Kempegowda Layout and NIE students Naik, Sanjan, Pavan, Ramith and Yana Seethamma were also present among the hundreds of volunteers.

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

As we bid farewell to 2025 and embrace the dawn of 2026, our club stands at the threshold of exciting possibilities, new visions, innovative projects, and ambitious goals that will amplify our impact on the community. Your support has been the heartbeat of every project we've undertaken so far, from solar distribution to educational initiatives. With just a few months left in our term, let's channel this momentum toward our remaining endeavors and the fresh lineup ahead. Together, we'll not only meet our targets but exceed them. Here's to a year of service, fellowship, and triumph!

Yours in Rotary,
Rtn Shubha Muralidhar
