Overview

The joint meeting of Rotary Club Manipal and Manipal Mahila Samaj on 18 November 2025 was a culturally rich and well-attended event highlighted by the enthralling dance drama "Hejjegolida Belaku," performed by Vidhushi Samskriti Prabhakar. Showcasing the life of Natyarani Shanthala with exceptional artistry, the performance, supported by Prajnanam Trust Udupi, created a spellbinding atmosphere. Warm fellowship, insightful introductions, and a smooth flow of the programme made the evening memorable, reaffirming the spirit of collaboration and cultural appreciation between the two organizations.

The Joint Meeting between Rotary Club Manipal (RCM) and Manipal Mahila Samaj (MMS) held on 18 November 2025 at Rotary Hall, Manipal, was a vibrant and culturally enriching evening centered around the theme "Nrithya Roopaka." The event saw an impressive gathering of 90 participants, reflecting the strong fellowship and collaborative spirit between the two organizations. The evening began with a warm welcome by Rtn. Shashikala Rajavarma, President of RCM, setting a gracious tone for the programme. The President of MMS then briefly shared the rich legacy, core values, and ongoing charitable initiatives of the Mahila Samaj, highlighting its long-standing commitment to fun, interaction, empowerment, and community service.

The distinguished Chief Guest, Nritya Vidushi Samskriti Prabhakar, was introduced by RCM Secretary Rtn. Vanishree Rao, followed by a thoughtful introduction to the evening's dance drama by her father, Mr. Prabhakar. The programme was seamlessly anchored by Rtn. Divyashree M. S, whose poised compering ensured smooth transitions throughout the event.

The highlight of the evening was the enthralling dance drama "Hejjegolida Belaku", presented by the exceptionally talented Vidhushi Samskriti. With remarkable finesse, she portrayed the inspiring life of Natyarani Shanthala, bringing the narrative alive through expressive dance, powerful dialogue delivery, and dramatic presentation. The performance was further elevated by the artistic excellence of the Prajnanam Trust Udupi team led by G. P. Prabhakar Tumuri, who crafted an immersive experience through impeccable stage décor, lighting, sound, music, and costuming. Sanskriti's solo performance—blending dance, drama, emotion, and storytelling—captivated the audience and earned deep admiration. She was honoured on this special occasion for her extraordinary artistic contributions.

The event concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks proposed by Ms. Vijayalakshmi, Secretary of Manipal Mahila Samaj, appreciating the efforts of both clubs and all contributors who made the cultural evening memorable.
