A young Rotarian meets Tata - PDG Deepak Shikarpur

In 1995, as a young sales person in TELCO (Tata Motors), my job involved a lot of travel and I found it difficult to attend Rotary meetings. As my attendance was falling low, I decided to leave Rotary, and even wrote out my resignation letter on a trip to Mumbai.

When I went to the Taj Mahal Hotel to attend a computer exhibition and conference, I found a signage about the weekly meeting of RC Bombay. I thought it a great opportunity for a last meet before I resigned.

There, I was astonished to see Ratan Tata, went up to him and introduced myself as a Telco (Tata Motors) staff member. He asked me about my work, role etc, and complimenting on my work, said "Since you are in sales and meeting many people, Rotary is a good place for you."

That interaction changed my life After the meeting, I tore up my resignation letter, and continue to be a proud Rotarian.
