INTERNATIONAL SERVICE – WORLD POLIO DAY

Good Evening, Challengers,

We are looking forward to your presence with us on Thursday, 23rd October 2025 evening at 6.30 PM, in front of Vidhana Souda, where we will assemble and then proceed to walk towards Rotary House of Friendship, for a short meeting and light dinner.

Let us do our bit to create awareness on Polio.

And the Walk

TOWARDS A POLIO-FREE WORLD - POLIO AWARENESS WALKATHON BY ROBANO, on Friday, 24th October, starting at 7:00 AM. From MES College Rajajinagar to Prasanna Theatre.

Message from Rtn. Prakash Gawankar,

Hi everyone,

We had a good Polio Awareness Walk today. Thanks to the students of MES Institute of Management, who took part in the walk, for their enthusiastic participation. The all-out support from the management of the Institute made the event proceed smoothly.

Special thanks to Rtns. Basavaraj Biradar and Girish Yavagal for their efforts in obtaining necessary permission from the Police, without which this event could not have been possible. Rtns. Dr. Vidushi and Balaji for co-ordinating the event along with Polio Chairman Shirish Nene. Dr. Upendra gave the event an appropriate start. Thanks to all my Rotarian friends who took time off from their busy schedules and took active part in the walk. Finally, Good job. Well done.

CSR PROJECT

We are pleased to share that ₹10 lakhs has been received as part of the CSR commitment.

The total project budget is ₹75 lakhs, and this amount marks the first phase of funds released to the Trust. This is part of CSR initiative where BNRT has received Rs. 10 L from Innvolution Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. for digging of Borewells in Ramnagara Taluk. The first one is at Kavanpura, 15 kms from Ramnagara.
