OFFICIAL NEWS LETTER OF ROTARY COCHIN EAST

KOCHI ANGADI

RCCE organised our main fundraising event- Kochi Angadi. The event inaugurated by MP. Hibi Eden at Hotel Highway Garden brought together a number of vendors of handicrafts, garments, gifting items to create a exciting shopping experience. Shoppers delighted in the variety of goods, from intricately designed jewelry to beautifully crafted textiles, each item telling its own story. The aroma of delicious food wafted through the air, tempting visitors to indulge in local delicacies and international cuisines.

Meanwhile, the open mic stage became a hub of creativity, where talented performers showcased their skills in music, poetry, and comedy, captivating the audience with their passion and flair. The laughter and applause that filled the venue underscored the event's success in bringing people together to celebrate creativity and community spirit.

SPEAKER MEETINGS: TALK

Rotarian Arabind Chandrasekhar of Rotary Kochi United, on the 14th October gave a talk titled "WHAT'S IN A NAME". His entertaining talk on the importance of names was filled with many an anecdote about funny and unusual names. He showed how he himself gives importance to people's names and remembers them which help to build a connection with them. Arabind shared stories of individuals whose lives were shaped by their names, illustrating the power names hold in shaping identity
