TUESDAYS WITH THE ROTARY CLUB OF BOMBAY

Inspiring talks and networking for BY alumni

Our Bhavishya Yaan alumni gathered for an event on the beautiful terrace of the Free Press Journal building. Three speakers, Vivek Patwardhan, Manasi Salvi, and Sundar Nathan, made impactful presentations. The enthusiastic children showed keen interest in the insightful talks by the distinguished authors. Manasi Salvi's brief yet powerful speech resonated, offering valuable perspectives on life's highs and lows and the importance of effective management. The alumni reunion was a great success, concluding with a delightful dinner.

PN Bimal Mehta took the initiative to engage with the kids, inquiring about their current activities and exploring ways to enhance the Bhavishya Yaan programme. Many alumni expressed a desire for internships and job opportunities. The entire event, a testament to PP Ramesh Narayan's wonderful initiative, brought the Bhavishya Yaan community together in a meaningful and enriching way. Thank you, PP Ramesh!

BY kids at G.K. Marg get into the spirit of things

Students of different grades of Bhavishya Yaan at G.K. Marg came together to celebrate Christmas. Mr. Priyansh guided the children admirably. The secondary students crafted a delightful nativity scene. Their graceful performance brought the story of Christmas to life. Then came the 5th graders who sang 'Silent Night.' Their harmonies echoed through the air filling all hearts with peace.

Next, the 3rd and 4th graders took the stage, performing "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" with great spirit. Their energy and enthusiasm, infectious smiles spread the holiday spirit throughout the audience.

'Jingle bells, jingle bells,' sang the 1st and 2nd graders, their voices sweetly ringing loud and clear. The event ended with the secondary children doing a dance performance, filling the room with laughter. Together, celebrating the magic of Christmas with love, joy, and togetherness, we felt blessed.

Festive celebrations and gift of sight to AY seniors

The Christmas season is a time of love and joy, a moment to celebrate with family members and friends. Rtn. Christopher Bluemel embraces this spirit, dedicating every Christmas to his family and the elders of the Ananda Yaan project.

At all three centres, elders adorned in red sarees prepared delicious snacks, partaking in the festivities with a potluck. They joyously decorated the Christmas tree, danced to merry tunes, and were pleasantly surprised when Ms. Archana Achrekar from the Mazagaon centre appeared sportingly in a Santa outfit.

The Ananda Yaan Committee expresses gratitude to its project partners for orchestrating parties, games, and music across all three centres. In the festive spirit, Rtn. Chris extended his generosity by gifting six cataract operations to needy Ananda Yaan members.

BY kids celebrate a joyful Christmas Carnival at CCI

In December, all six Bhavishya Yaan schools start preparing for their annual Christmas party at the iconic Cricket Club of India. It is the time of the year when BY classes become most important for these municipal school children. Also, they know that they would be going to the CCI Christmas Carnival, and surely, no one wants to be left behind!

The event is something the children excitedly look forward to — nearly two hours of sheer fun. It is like a Christmas ‘theme park’ made available to them with rides, food, music, dance, and gifts. Close to 800-900 students of BY attended the Christmas Carnival this year at the Cricket Club of India, spread between the six schools over two days.

On the way home this year, snack boxes and backpacks were handed over to each and every child filled with goodies. On behalf of Bhavishya Yaan, we thank Rtn. Suresh Agarwal who has been hosting this wonderful Christmas party for the children year after year for over 10 years.

Lighthouse and Salaam Baalak kids enjoy the carnival at CCI

The Child Welfare Committee of RCB extends its gratitude to Ms. Manisha Ahuja, a mentor from the NGO Vidya, for enrolling Lighthouse and Salaam Baalak kids for the CCI Christmas carnival. The children had a delightful afternoon at the CCI Club, accompanied by four teachers and six mothers.

Tattoos appeared to be a favourite among the tiny tots, who eagerly showed off their arms adorned with Santa and Christmas tree designs. The moonwalker and mini train kept them entertained, and their faces gleamed with joy at the sight of popcorn and cotton candy. The DJ had them all on stage, dancing to his tunes, and the afternoon concluded with a delicious snack box and gifts. After all the jumping around, they were hungry and looked forward to the treat!

Members, please note that we have tied up with Masina Hospital for a great discount for our members, family, and friends.

To avail discount kindly contact PP Vijay Kumar Jatia on email along with a brief medical history: vkj.rotary@modernindia.co.in

A very short, inspirational story

In ancient times, a King placed a large stone on a road. He then concealed himself and observed to see if anyone would remove the stone. Some of the king's wealthiest merchants and courtiers passed by, simply circumventing it.

Numerous individuals vocally criticised the King for not maintaining clear roads, yet none took action to remove the stone.

Subsequently, a peasant carrying vegetables approached. Upon reaching the stone, the peasant set down his load and endeavoured to move the stone from the road. After considerable effort, he eventually succeeded. As the peasant returned to collect his vegetables, he discovered a purse on the road where the stone had been. The purse was filled with gold coins and a note from the King, stating that the gold was a reward for the individual who removed the stone from the road.
