

A Memorable Start: Highlights from RCMC's First Meeting of the Year

July 7, 2025

The Rotary Club of Madras Central's first meeting of the new year saw a warm and enthusiastic turnout, with over 35 members in attendance. The evening began with a cordial welcome from our new President, Rtn. Balakrishnan, followed by an update from the Secretary, Rtn. Shyam, who shared important news and plans for the club.

Club Service Director Rtn. Nandkishore outlined upcoming activities and Membership Director Rtn. Mukund introduced Rotary's new app, explaining how the transition from the old platform would enhance club communication and engagement. Members who supported the recent grand installation of our new president were recognized and appreciated for their support.

The highlight of the evening was a special address by Retd. Major General Indrabalan, who delivered an engaging and insightful talk on Operation Sindoor and India's military capabilities (please see detailed note in the next page).

The meeting concluded with a felicitation of the speaker, followed by fellowship and a delightful dinner, making it a memorable and meaningful start to the Rotary year.

An Inspiring Talk by Major General M Indrabalan

Bravery, Unity, & Modern Might: Operation Sindoor & India's Military Excellence

It was a memorable evening as members enjoyed an engaging and heartfelt presentation by Major General M. Indrabalan, a distinguished former officer of the Indian military. His talk on Operation Sindoor and India's military capabilities was not only informative but also deeply moving, leaving the audience both enlightened and filled with pride.

Operation Sindoor & India's Military Strengths

Major Indrabalan's presentation on Operation Sindoor highlighted it as a defining moment for India, launched after a devastating terror attack. He powerfully conveyed how the operation was not just about military action, but about national unity and resilience. Through personal stories, he brought to life the bravery of soldiers and the sacrifices of their families, making the audience feel deeply connected.

He also emphasized India's advanced military technology, showing that our nation's Defence forces are world-class. Ultimately, his talk celebrated the spirit, determination, and unity that bind India together in challenging times.

A Leader's Perspective

Major Indrabalan, with years of experience serving the nation, brought a unique blend of passion and clarity to his speech. He shared stories not just of strategy and operations, but of the courage, unity, and technical expertise that define India's armed forces. Importantly, he highlighted leadership qualities—decisiveness, resilience, and the ability to inspire teams under pressure—that are vital in the military.

A Message for All

For the members of the RCMC present there, the evening was more than just a session on Operation Sindoor. It was a reminder of the values that make India strong: resilience, unity, and a deep love for the country. Major Indrabalan's insights left everyone with a renewed sense of pride and gratitude for the men and women who protect our nation every day.
