AN EYE CHECKUP CAMP AT BAHULA

A free eye check-up camp and medicine distribution program was held on 17th May 2026, by the Rotary Club of Durgapur Central in collaboration with Bahula Young men Association at Bahula. There were experts from Lions Eye Hospital of Raniganj. By giving people in need free eye check up examinations and medications, the event seeks to give the community access to vital healthcare services. About 80 persons received eye check up examinations and free medications. In total 25 of those patients were sent to Lions's Eye Hospital of Raniganj for free IOL procedure. Rtn Mantaar Singh, President ; Rtn Ajoy Paul, Rtn Subrata Chatterjee, Rtn Chhagan Patel , Rtn Dr Alok Sanyal , Ann Sanyal & Rtn T K Dutta, PE were present at camp from Rotary Club of Durgapur Central.

EMPOWERING EDUCATION : A HEARTWARMING GESTURE BY ROTARY CLUBS

In a wonderful example of global goodwill and community support, the Rotary Club of Bolton Lever , RID 1210 (UK) has extended a helping hand to support the education of a young student from India on 3rd May 2026 . Following a request made last year by the Rotary Club of Durgapur Central, RID 3240, Zone 2, the UK-based club committed to providing financial assistance to Miss Joyita Mondal, a dedicated student from Durgapur. As part of this initiative, an amount equivalent to £300 per year for three years has been pledged to support her educational journey.

The first instalment, amounting to Rs 40,000, has now been received. In a meaningful and heartfelt moment, the President, Rtn Mantaar Singh and members , Rtn Indranil Mukherjee , Rtn Ajoy Paul & Rtn Chhagan Patel of the Rotary Club of Durgapur Central officially handed over the cheque to Miss Joyita on 3rd May 2026 at her residence. Joyita, currently a Class XI student at a Central School in Durgapur, received the support in the presence of her mother and teacher. The occasion was not just about financial aid, it was a celebration of hope, encouragement, and belief in the power of education. This initiative reflects the true spirit of Rotary connecting communities across borders to create lasting impact. By supporting young minds like Joyita, Rotary continues to pave the way for a brighter and more empowered future.
