THEME

JANUARY IS VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH

JANUARY IS

VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH

Let's honor and promote professional ethics and skills within our communities.

Activities during January

During January, Rotary clubs often hold meetings and projects that highlight this avenue of service, such as:

- Inviting members to give "classification talks" about their professions to promote vocational awareness.

- Presenting vocational awards to community members who exemplify outstanding professional achievement and high ethical standards.
- Developing projects that provide career information to youth, offer mentorship to small businesses, or organize skill-development workshops.
- Putting professional skills to work as Rotary volunteers to solve community problems.

This monthly focus helps Rotarians reflect on their professional lives as avenues for service, reinforcing the organization's principal motto, "Service Above Self".
