रवि शंकर जी के सम्मेलन में दिए गए प्रेरणादायक भाषण से प्रेरित होकर, इस अद्भुत दंपति ने The Rotary Foundation में योगदान कर Major Donor बनने का निर्णय लिया और एक दिन में पूरा पैसा रोटरी फाउंडेशन में ट्रान्सफर कर दिया।

उनकी यह उदारता और सेवा भावना पूरे रोटरी परिवार के लिए प्रेरणा है। जिला उनके इस महत्वपूर्ण योगदान के लिए उन्हें सलाम करता है। 🌟

Best wishes to this inspiring couple for their outstanding achievement! 🌟

Rotary Club bulletins play a crucial role in keeping members informed, engaged, and connected with the activities and initiatives of the club. They can be fun to put together, especially when some creativity is applied to the mix, and club members should be involved in producing them. After all, the Club Bulletin is a record in the club's history and should be worth looking back on.

Here are some key elements and topics that are commonly included in weekly Rotary Club bulletins:

1. President's Message: A brief message from the club president, highlighting key updates, expressing gratitude, and setting the tone for the week's bulletin.
2. Upcoming Events: Information about upcoming club meetings, events, and activities. Include details such as date, time, location, and any special instructions or requirements.
3. Recap of Previous Meeting: A summary of the most recent club meeting, including highlights, key discussions, and any important decisions made. This keeps members who may have missed the meeting informed.
4. Member Spotlights: Feature short profiles or spotlights on individual club members. Share their Rotary journey, achievements, and contributions, fostering a sense of community and connection.
5. Service Project Updates: Updates on ongoing or upcoming service projects, including progress reports, volunteer opportunities, and any needs for additional support.
6. District News: Information and updates from the Rotary district, including announcements, events, and initiatives that may be of interest to club members.
7. Rotary International News: Highlight news and initiatives from Rotary International, emphasizing how the club is contributing to the broader Rotary community and its global impact.
8. Committee Reports: Reports from various committees within the club, providing updates on their activities, plans, and any support they may need from the general membership.
9. Member Birthdays and Anniversaries: Recognize and celebrate the birthdays and Rotary anniversaries of club members. This adds a personal touch to the bulletin and strengthens the sense of camaraderie.
10. Member Achievements: Acknowledge and celebrate the achievements, milestones, or recognitions received by club members inside and outside of Rotary.
11. Club Announcements: Share any important announcements, reminders, or news relevant to the club. This could include changes in meeting venues, special announcements, or calls for participation in specific activities.

13. Photos and Visuals: Incorporate photographs from recent events, meetings, or service projects. Visuals add vibrancy to the bulletin and help members connect with the club's activities.
14. Member Contributions: Encourage members to contribute articles, anecdotes, or reflections to the bulletin. This fosters a sense of ownership and participation among the membership.

Creating a well-rounded and engaging weekly Rotary Club bulletin involves collaboration among club leaders, committee chairs, and members. It serves as a valuable communication tool, fostering a sense of community, camaraderie, and shared purpose among Rotary Club members.

Please remember that Club bulletins are also an engaging way to communicate with people close to your Club. Consider making some of your content outward-facing to make these people feel welcome to engage further with the club.
