In Rotary, May is designated as Youth Service Month, focusing on projects and initiatives that benefit young people. This includes Rotary's structured programs like Interact, Rotaract, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA), and Youth Exchange, as well as other youth-related programs like EarlyAct. The goal is to empower youth and young professionals through leadership development and service opportunities.

Youth Service Month:

This month is a time for Rotary clubs to highlight and focus on their work with youth, including various programs and initiatives.

Key Programs:

Interact, Rotaract, RYLA, and Youth Exchange are central to Rotary's youth service efforts.

- Interact:

Student-run clubs in high schools and secondary schools, led by Rotary Club members, promoting leadership and community service.

- Rotaract:

Clubs for young people over 18, exchanging ideas with community leaders, developing leadership and professional skills, and engaging in service projects.

- RYLA:

Programs that foster leadership and development skills in young people.

Youth Exchange:

Programs that facilitate cultural exchange for young people, promoting understanding and friendship across borders.

Rotary Clubs:

May also focus on local youth-related initiatives in their own communities during this month.

Focus on Empowerment:

The month's theme emphasizes the importance of empowering young people and providing them with opportunities to develop leadership skills and contribute to their communities.

Rotary's Fifth Avenue of Service:

Youth Service is one of Rotary's five core areas of service, along with Community Service, Vocational Service, International Service, and Peacebuilding and Conflict Prevention.

Celebrate Youth Service Month

May is Youth Service Month — a time dedicated to recognising the local and global impact of the 350,000+ young people engaged in Rotary's youth programs worldwide. Join us in honoring Rotary's young leaders @RotaryYoungLeaders on Instagram

This new account showcases the experiences of Rotary's youth program participants! Follow for news and updates about Interact, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA), and Rotary Youth Exchange. Throughout May, you'll find special content related to Youth Service Month.

Participating in a webinar about young leaders Register for the webinar, Youth Service Month: Funding, Elevating, and Integrating Young Leaders, to learn directly from members of Rotary's Youth Advisory Council about:
