EDITORIAL

Conflict often arises in the absence of understanding, cooperation, and goodwill. While differences are natural in any society, resolving them through dialogue and mutual respect is the true foundation of peace.

Rotary Peace Month reminds us of Rotary's long-standing commitment to peacebuilding and conflict resolution. Through service projects, youth leadership initiatives, cultural exchanges, and Rotary Peace Fellowships, Rotary addresses the root causes of conflict and promotes harmony within communities and across nations.

As Rotarians, we believe that peace begins with Service Above Self. By fostering tolerance, encouraging open dialogue, and working together for the common good, we contribute to building a more peaceful and compassionate world.

Let us continue to uphold Rotary's mission of creating peace—not only during this month, but through our actions every day.

Let us also reflect on the timeless mantra from the Taittiriya Upanishad:

Saha Na Bhavatu,
Saha Nau Bhunaktu,
Saha Veeryam Karavavahai,
Tejasvinavadheetamastu,
Ma Vidvishavahai.
Om Shantih, Shantih, Shantih II
