Today's programme 'The Little Miss and Little Master'

EDITORIAL

'The Little Miss and Little Master' competition is a joyful and memorable event organised by the Rotary Club of Cuttack. The pleasant winter weather adds to the excitement and makes the evening full of fun, laughter, and cheer. Children from different schools participate with great enthusiasm and confidence. The programme includes a creative fancy dress competition, where the participants dress in colourful costumes and walk the stage with charm and grace. The event provides a wonderful platform to bring out the latent talent of young children and help boost their self-confidence. The little contestants who are energetic, enthusiastic, and full of spirit make the audience smile and applaud continuously. Parents and teachers encourage the children and enjoy every moment of the programme. The venue is decorated beautifully, adding to the colourful atmosphere of the competition. Judges carefully observe each performance and appreciate the creativity and effort of the participants. At the end of the event, the winners are awarded prizes and certificates, while all participants receive encouragement and appreciation. Overall, the competition is a delightful celebration of childhood talent.
