Dear fellow Rotarians,

Clean water and sanitation are human rights. When people, especially children, have access to clean water, sanitation, and hygiene, they lead healthier and more successful lives. We don't just build wells and walk away. Rotary members integrate water, sanitation, and hygiene into education projects. When children learn about disease transmission and practice good hygiene, they miss less school. And they can take those lessons home to their families, expanding our impact.

Clean water is a basic human right that many are often denied. There are 2.5 billion people in the world that lack access to improved sanitation and 748 million people that don't have clean drinking water. Nearly 1400 children die each day from diseases caused by lack of sanitation and unsafe water. When people have access to clean water, they live healthier and more productive lives.

Over 750 million people in the world lack access to safe water and more than 2.5 billion people lack access to adequate sanitation facilities. At least 3,000 children die each day from diarrheal diseases caused by unsafe water. Rotary's projects give communities the ability to develop and maintain sustainable water and sanitation systems and support studies related to water and sanitation.

The problem is not that the world will run out of water (that amount is fixed through evaporation and re-condensation). The problem is the unequal distribution of water and the lack of universal proper sanitary practices to assure safe water for drinking. While some regions and peoples are certainly at greater risk than others and deserving of greater attention, we have seen recently that no population is free from concern. Consider the lead problems in the approaching Day Zero for Cape Town, South Africa the same problem may occur in our district itself. We cannot take it for granted that lot of river flows in our district and we may not face water problem. Water and sanitation issues will certainly continue to be an area of focus for RI and deserving of our attention as Rotarians. We Rotarians at our district level have to frame certain schemes and project which suits our local needs that can overcome water crisis.

Yours in Rotary
P Raghavendra, President

We Celebrate the Birthdays of ...

PROTECTING THE ENVIRONMENT

We are excited to share that it is now easier than ever to help protect the environment with an online gift to The Rotary Foundation today!

Rotary supports activities that conserve and protect natural resources, advance ecological sustainability, and foster harmony between people and the environment..

When you give to The Rotary Foundation, we empower Rotary members to take action to:

- Protect and restore land, coastal, marine, and freshwater resources
 - Enhance the capacity of communities to manage and conserve natural resources
 - Support sustainable agriculture, fishing, and aquaculture practices
 - Address the cause of climate change by reducing greenhouse gas emissions
 - Strengthen ecosystems and communities that are affected by climate change
 - Support education to promote behaviors that protect the environment
 - Advocate for sustainable consumption to build an economy that uses resources more efficiently
- Address environmental justice issues and public health concerns
