4-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do.

The author of the 4-Way Test is Herbert J. Taylor. He was a member of the Chicago Rotary Club and a prosperous businessman. Interestingly, Herb originally wrote the test, not for Rotary, but for a troubled business that he had taken over.

- 1 Is it the TRUTH?
- 2 Will it build GOODWILL and Better FRIENDSHIPS?
- 3 Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 4 Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Arthur Frederick Sheldon, the Rotarian whose convention speech inspired Rotary's secondary motto, One Profits Most Who Serves Best

A name badge from the 1928 Rotary International Convention features Rotary's mottoes.

Rotary's two official mottoes

Service Above Self and One Profits Most Who Serves Best, Rotary's official mottoes, can be traced back to the early days of the organization.

In 1911, the second Rotary convention, in Portland, Oregon, USA, approved He Profits Most Who Serves Best as the Rotary motto. The wording was adapted from a speech that Rotarian Arthur Frederick Sheldon delivered to the first convention, held in Chicago the previous year. Sheldon declared that "only the science of right conduct toward others pays. Business is the science of human services. He profits most who serves his fellows best."

The Portland gathering also inspired the motto Service Above Self. During an outing on the Columbia River, Ben Collins, president of the Rotary Club of Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA, talked with Seattle Rotarian J.E. Pinkham about the proper way to organize a Rotary club, offering the principle his club had adopted: Service, Not Self. Pinkham invited Rotary founder Paul Harris, who also was on the trip, to join their conversation. Harris asked Collins to address the convention, and the phrase Service, Not Self was met with great enthusiasm.

At the 1950 Rotary International Convention in Detroit, Michigan, USA, two slogans were formally approved as the official mottoes of Rotary: He Profits Most Who Serves Best and Service Above Self. The 1989 Council on Legislation established Service Above Self as the principal motto of Rotary because it best conveys the philosophy of unselfish volunteer service. He Profits Most Who Serves Best was modified to They Profit Most Who Serve Best in 2004 and to its current wording, One Profits Most Who Serves Best, in 2010.

CPR training at schools, public places

CPR stands for Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation procedure. It is an emergency life-saving procedure that is done when someone's breathing or heartbeat has stopped. This may happen after a medical emergency, such as an electric shock, heart attack, or drowning.

CPR involves chest compressions and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. The aim is to circulate blood and oxygen in the body to keep the brain and vital organs alive until specialised treatment is available.

Supporting local artisans

Local artisans pass down their knowledge, skills, and craftsmanship from one generation to the next. Their work is not only about creating beautiful products. It's about sustaining the stories, rituals, and practices that define who we are as a society. Supporting local artisans directly contributes to the livelihood of communities as it facilitates job opportunities, helps preserve traditional techniques, supports fair labor practices, and promotes a more sustainable and ethical economy.

Economic and Community Development

The RI theme for October is Economic and Community Development. Rotary clubs around the world work with communities to help create sustainable development. Some ways Rotary clubs can support economic and community development include: Supporting entrepreneurs and small businesses in developing communities; Expanding vocational training with job placement programs; Partnering with cooperatives;

Purchasing locally and Developing mobile banking resources.
