Report on the Innovative Public Image and Rotary Awareness Program by Rotary Club of Allahabad Elite

The Rotary Club of Allahabad Elite undertook an innovative initiative to enhance Rotary's public image and promote awareness about its programs by setting up an engaging stall at a prominent school fete. This outreach effort aimed to inform the public about Rotary's mission and the numerous benefits of becoming a Rotarian.

Event Highlights

- Objective: To create awareness about Rotary's community service programs and inspire people to join hands in serving society.
- Participants: The event was graced by the active participation of President Rtn Nandini Verma, PP Rtn Dr. Alka Das, PP Rtn Poonam Ray, Rtn Aprajita Sen, Rtn Prasant Choudhary, Rtn Dhruv Dasgupta, Rtn Ashish, Rtn Urmila Thakur and PP Rtn Abhishek Verma.

Stall Features

1. Interactive Sessions: Members of the Rotary Club interacted with visitors, explaining Rotary's global and local impact.
2. Informative Displays: The stall featured posters, brochures, and videos highlighting Rotary's initiatives, including tree plantation drives, healthcare programs, and educational projects.
3. Membership Benefits: A detailed presentation was made about the personal and social benefits of joining Rotary, such as networking, leadership development, and contributing to meaningful social causes.

Response and Engagement

The stall attracted significant interest from the visitors, including parents, students, and school staff. Many attendees expressed curiosity about Rotary's activities and signed up for further information regarding membership.

Conclusion

This initiative successfully enhanced Rotary's visibility and emphasized its commitment to community service. It also highlighted the enthusiasm and dedication of the Rotary Club of Allahabad Elite's members in promoting Rotary's ideals. Such innovative public engagement strategies are instrumental in strengthening the Rotary movement and inspiring more individuals to contribute to societal betterment.

The Rotary Club of Allahabad Elite extends its gratitude to all the visitors and organizers of the school fete for their support and encouragement in making this program a success.

“Maa Mujhe Tagore Bana De” - A Captivating Solo Drama Performance

On 22nd November, the Rotary Club of Allahabad Elite organized an engaging drama show at Vidya Vahini School. The highlight of the evening was the solo performance of “Maa Mujhe Tagore Bana De”, presented by the acclaimed actor, storyteller, and director, Mr. Luckyjee Gupta from Jammu and Kashmir.

This unique play, inspired by Late Mohan Bhandari's celebrated Punjabi story, is written, directed, and enacted by Luckyjee Gupta himself. It is a heartfelt tale of a young village boy who, despite numerous challenges, discovers his true calling and the deeper essence of education. The play aims to instill values and strengthen relationships, making it a meaningful experience for students and teachers alike.

What sets “Maa Mujhe Tagore Bana De” apart is its journey of connection and impact. Over the years, Luckyjee Gupta has traveled over six lakh kilometers, performing in 800 cities and towns across 25 states, and has touched the lives of more than 50 lakh students. The play's simplicity is its strength—it can be performed anywhere, be it in moving trains, buses, railway platforms, bus stops, rooftops, restaurants, or even living rooms. The minimal stage requirements make it an intimate production that thrives on audience participation, often involving spectators in enacting certain characters.

The emotional depth of the play was evident during the performance, as many students and teachers were visibly moved to tears. This transformative experience demonstrates the power of drama as a medium for education and emotional connection.

The event was graced by distinguished attendees, including Rtn. Poonam Ray, Rtn. Nandini Verma, renowned artist and drama director Sri Anil Ranjan Bhaumik, and Rtn. Mohd. Tariq Khan. Their presence added to the significance of the occasion, celebrating the role of art in shaping values and fostering learning.

Maa Mujhe Tagore Bana De continues to inspire audiences, leaving an indelible mark on all who witness it—a testament to the enduring power of storytelling.
