Let Us Look Forward

What RCA Heritage achieved in 2024–25 was truly commendable and a matter of pride for all of us. From engaging fellowship events and international experiences like the Sri Kartarpur Sahib tour, to fun-filled programs such as RBL 3.0 and impactful service initiatives like the Walkathon, Cancer Care Kit distribution, and the Mega Medical Health Check-up — each activity reflected strong leadership and the dedication of our members.

We placed special emphasis on fellowships that strengthened family bonding, fostering deeper unity within the RCA Heritage family.

Our dynamic club environment also enabled some members to expand their businesses, thanks to the trust and networking within the Rotary circle. These interactions added value to our experience, proving that Rotary fosters both service and personal growth.

Yet in Rotary, there is always room to grow. As we enter a new Rotary year, it's time to build on our momentum and plan the next stage of growth — with a long-term vision.

In line with this, RCA Heritage has taken a visionary step: the creation of a dedicated Trust. This will open doors to CSR funding and donations in a structured, transparent way — helping us dream bigger and deliver larger, more impactful service projects.

This marks the beginning of a new chapter — filled with greater opportunities, enhanced credibility, and the power to make a meaningful difference. But this vision will need your support, ideas, and continued commitment.

Let us move ahead with renewed purpose and unity — and take RCA Heritage to even greater heights.

Let Us Implement What We Have Learned So Far

As time passes, we gather valuable experiences—both good and bad—that shape our journey. Over the past three years, RCA Heritage has grown through these learnings, gained from every project, fellowship, challenge, and achievement.

Now is the time to put those lessons into action and move ahead with purpose. We've learned how to scale up projects, host inclusive fellowships that build stronger family bonds, manage funds responsibly, and most importantly, how to deliver impactful service initiatives that create real change in society.

The decision to form the RCA Heritage Trust is a milestone in this direction. It will enable us to attract CSR partnerships and structured donations, helping us scale our service efforts more professionally and transparently. Just as critical is our commitment to image building—showcasing the club's work through effective communication, branding, and a strong digital presence. A powerful public image strengthens Rotary's identity and draws in new supporters and members.

Let us move forward with a spirit of implementation, not just intention. By applying our learnings and working collectively, RCA Heritage is well-positioned to grow with vision, impact, and sustainability.

Let us implement what we've learned—and shape a future we can all be proud of.

Understanding Menopause

This was an insightful and engaging program held on June 9, 2025, jointly organized by RCA Heritage and Maple Tree Society. The event aimed to raise awareness about a crucial phase in women's health. Expert speakers, Dr. Poorva (Dermatologist) and Dr. Bhakti (Gynaecologist), provided valuable guidance on understanding menopause, self-care during this stage, and maintaining overall well-being.

The evening was made truly special by the presence of the renowned star cast of Jalebi Rocks — Vandana Pathak, Manasi Rachh, and Bhavini Jani — who brought humour, warmth, and energy to the program. Their lively performances added a fun and entertaining dimension, making the experience both educational and enjoyable.

With almost 109 women participating, the thoughtfully conceptualized program successfully blended expert insights with engaging entertainment, leaving the audience informed, empowered, and thoroughly delighted.

RCA Heritage extends heartfelt thanks to Maple Tree Society for partnering in this meaningful initiative, and to Rtn. Pinky Sadhu for her generous support, which helped make the program a resounding success. A special thanks to Dr. Ronak Shah for supporting and coordinating with the expert speakers.

On 5th June 2025, Rtn Dr. Darshan Thakkar of RCA Heritage had a truly memorable experience visiting the Rotary Club of Brescia, Italy — a club with a proud 100-year legacy of service.

The club extended a warm welcome, even arranging a special vegetarian dinner just for him — a thoughtful gesture showcasing true Rotary hospitality.

It was a joint meeting of four clubs, giving him the opportunity to connect with over 50 entrepreneurs and leaders from diverse fields, all united by Rotary's mission.
