President Speaks...

Dear Rotarians and Friends,

April has been a powerful reminder of what we can achieve when Service Above Self becomes more than a motto and how we can execute impactful and sustainable projects, when we join hands with other like-minded Clubs and organisations. Our projects this month continue to be strongly tied into the Seven Areas of Focus, that Rotary champions globally, making our impact not only local but also lasting and global in spirit.

During April, we took multiple impactful and transformative strides along the theme of Basic Education and Literacy—a cornerstone of Rotary's focus. The most impactful project was the desk-bench donation project, that helped transform, the learning ecosystem of 2 educational institutions and serving nearly 1000 students. Kudos to the support provided by partnering Clubs and organisations for achieving this wonderful achievement. Our Club strongly believes that good education infrastructure can uplift an entire community and how the learning environment can be made more inclusive and dignified.

our Annapoorna & Domestic-Help Scheme Registration drive initiatives, stood as a beacon of Community Economic Development, strengthening the social welfare of the most needy communities. Empowerment begins with inclusion—and we were honoured to be a bridge to that. Even the smallest lives deserve dignity. Through RCMSEP for Animal Welfare (RAW), we continued to serve the needs of the wonderful animals that need help. It was a step forward for Disease Prevention and Treatment and a reflection of our belief that compassion must extend to all living beings.

A shining moment for our Club this month was the Official Club Visit (OCV) by our District Governor. His words of praise uplifted every member's spirit as he lauded our immaculate strategic planning, seamless integration of projects with the strategy and focus areas, and robust club data management. He acknowledged what we already know—our strength lies not just in what we do, but in how we do it: with clarity, consistency, and commitment.

To all our passionate members, co-partnering Clubs, dedicated donors, and selfless volunteers—Thank You. Your tireless efforts are the wind beneath our wings. Let us carry this momentum into the months ahead, staying rooted in service, and rising with purpose. The world needs Rotary—and Rotary needs you.

Let us continue to dream, to do, and to deliver.

Yours in Rotary Service,

Rtn. Jotinder Singh Ahluwalia
