1. Aditya Chauhan for social service
2. Aashna Garv as a social media influencer
3. Rishika Jain in financial services
4. Anamika Singh for photography
5. Simran Sharma in acting
6. Rishi Krishnani in entrepreneurship.

Jane-Anjane (Musical Night)

RCHI co-hosted of a musical extravaganza – Jane Anjane held at Kashinath Ghanekar auditorium organized by Retro Lovers and Surtaal Academy on October 18, 2024 which drew an audience of nearly 500 people. The event was held for a charitable cause supporting the education of children through the Rash Foundation's initiative, Pocket of Strength, a multidisciplinary learning centre in Thane.

Study App Distribution

RCHI organized a study app distribution on October 22 at Saraswati School where our club distributed 100 Apps. A total of 176 apps were distributed among the students. Apart from club members, Mr. Amol, is the study app distributor was also present who held the session in an impactful manner and was quite motivational. He praised our club and the Rotary in general for its contribution worldwide. This app provides worksheets and educates children in a very effective and easy to remember technique.

Pre Diwali Family Night

RCHI celebrated its first Diwali get-together on 25th October at Rangla Punjab that gave all members a unique occasion to know and bond with each other. The bonding experience was unforgettable, and the well-organized activities created a lively atmosphere. The games were well thought out and were enjoyed by all the guests. The delicious food and vibrant environment added to the festivities. The dance floor was ablaze with energetic performances of young and old alike. The celebration was attended by maximum members of the club.

Annapoorna 6

The sixth Annapoorna was organized on October 27, 2024 at Vega CHS, Hiranandani Estate collaboration with 'Joints and Motion and it benefitted a large number of people who had gathered there for food and grocery. The sponsor for the event was Rtn. Chirayush Shah.
