Club Assembly 001, was conducted as a platform to review the club’s vision, structure, and plans for the term, with valuable insights shared by PDG, Anshuman Bandhpadhya. The session focused on strengthening leadership roles, aligning goals, and understanding the responsibilities that drive effective club functioning. It also encouraged open discussion, helping members gain clarity and direction for the months ahead.

SURER POROSH

Supporting “Home Away from Home”
- Arush Memorial Trust

27th February, 2026

The “Home Away from Home” initiative, supporting the Arush Memorial Trust, was undertaken on 27th February in collaboration with the Rotary Club of Greater Calcutta. Through a musical fundraiser, Shurer Parosh, funds were raised to support CCTV installation at the guest house that provides free accommodation to children undergoing cancer treatment and their parents. This initiative reflected a meaningful effort towards care, safety, and compassion for families in need.
