ROTARY INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Indian developer donates US$50 million to The Rotary Foundation

Declaring that "giving is a duty," longtime Rotary member Ravishankar Dakoju pledged that he and his wife and fellow club member, Paola Dakoju, would donate approximately US$50 million (4.5 billion Indian rupees) to The Rotary Foundation. Dakoju announced the gift at Rotary's International Assembly in Orlando, Florida, USA, on 13 January.

"Years ago, Paola and I shared a dream: that one day, when we had enough to live with dignity, we would return 85% of our wealth back to society," said Dakoju, a member of the Rotary Club of Bangalore, Karnataka, India. "My friends, that day has arrived."

Dakoju, who serves as The Rotary Foundation Arch Klumph Society ambassador for Asia, spoke about his belief that philanthropy is a personal responsibility and explained his and Paola's determination to give away their surplus wealth.

"What we keep may serve only our family, nothing beyond that. What we give The Rotary Foundation will serve humanity," he said.
